

MINISTER CONFESSES KILLING WOMAN AS THEY FLED HUSBAND

HIT HER WITH HAMMER IN QUARREL

Told of Taking Drinks Before Fatal Blow

PITTSFIELD, Ill. (AP)—An 11-page signed statement of a soft-spoken pastor that he struck his "devoted friend," Mrs. Dennis Kelly, 45, with a hammer during a roadside quarrel after she deserted her husband was claimed by authorities.

State's Attorney Merrill Johnston of Pike county, Illinois, announced the statement and said the Rev. C. E. Newton, 51, indicated willingness to plead guilty if the grand jury indicts him. Newton, for 13 years pastor of a Baptist church at Paris, is charged with first degree murder, a crime for which the electric chair is the extreme penalty.

Johnston quoted Newton as saying Mrs. Kelly insisted he accompany her to California on her flight from home and husband, which began Saturday night at Paris in Newton's automobile.

On the Illinois side of the Mark Twain bridge over the Mississippi, opposite Hannibal, Mo., Mrs. Kelly got out of the car, the statement said.

"She halfway screamed that she would never get back in the car unless we were going together," it added.

Johnston said Newton related calmly that:

He struggled with the woman during which she twice fell to the pavement.

He drank "two or three small ones," from a whiskey bottle.

He struck the woman with a hammer upon becoming "excited" as an automobile approached.

Then he dragged the body in the car, drove to the bridge and pushed the body off into the river. It was found floating near Louisiana, Mo., Tuesday morning.

U. S. EXPENSES 7 1/2 BILLIONS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Congress has appropriated more than $7,500,000 this year for federal expenditures, committee records showed today.

This includes an estimated $133,298,999 for the interior department, which the house may cut before giving final approval next week.

The budget bureau recommended general expenditures of $7,834,036,159.59, while the comparable appropriations for last year were $8,705,324,108.52.

This year's appropriations would be more than $1,000,000,000 ahead of last year's had not congress voted $2,237,000,000 in 1936 to pay the soldiers' bonus.

Including miscellaneous appropriations such as those to pay claims against the government, permanent and indefinite appropriations, the grand total approved by congress last year was $10,336,399,272.65.

Not until the present session ends will the total of this year's miscellaneous appropriations be known.

Using the estimate for the interior department, appropriations for the regular federal activities have aggregated $4,547,047,903.63 this year, compared with budget estimates of $4,885,513,517.24 and last year's total of $5,959,873,869.05.

The latter included the bonus payment but not the entire appropriation for farm activities.

Records of the house appropriations committee show these comparisons for regular appropriations (relief, CCC and deficiency appropriations are not included):

RUDY'S OLD FLAME HAS NEW LOVE HE'S FRENCH COUNT WITH DOUGH

NEW YORK (Special)—Luscious Evelyn Gresham, for whose sake Rudy Vallee once soaked a photographer, admitted today that she's acquired a new Great Lover.

He's a French count, with "plenty of dough and a couple of chauffeurs," as Evelyn succinctly put it today.

So great and devastating is Miss Gresham's love, according to her story, that she is sailing forthwith to Cannes with Georgie Hale's twelve Gorgeous Girls to be near his count.

Myra Hanan (above), adopted daughter of the Rev. C. E. The Orange county coast line is a magnetic pull. It is a natural asset too valuable to be allowed to just go "roughing it."

If I was a county beach coast guard, and needed help, I wouldn't bother John Mitchell. So I am going to suggest that he provide the help before I get to the coast. He may not arrive in time when I need him. The project is worthy of the limit help from the supervisors. Hope my endorsement won't defeat it.

En route here to greet his record-breaking countrymen, A. Vartanian, flight coordinator for the Russian government, told newsmen at Portland, Ore., that still another flight might be "around the world by the north and south poles."

"That could be a real record for Russian fliers," he beamed.

While the Soviet-built plane of Gromov and his crew remained in a cow pasture where it landed safely Wednesday morning, prepared for dismantling and shipment back to Russia, the aviators finished a round of official functions at San Diego and came here last night by train.

A jubilant crowd of 3000 was at the station. Voices were raised in "The Internationale." Fists clenched in familiar communist salutes. Discreetly, police assisted the flying heroes to automobiles which whisked them to the Russian consulate.

Besieged by autograph hunters and invitations to charity shows, film studios and even a rodeo, the trio made room for their program for a banquet by Southern California aircraft manufacturers to-night.

"That," she said, "is from my count. He gave it to me in Miami last winter. Rudy was simply furious! He burned up the wires trying to get me to give up my count. His name? Oh, I can't tell you that. I don't want to spoil the impression I make on his family."

BACK BRITISH NEUTRAL PLAN

LONDON, (AP)—The British compromise plan for keeping European hands off Spain was reported unanimously accepted as a "basis for discussion" today, an hour after the committee of 27 powers resumed afternoon deliberations.

A sub-committee was expected to meet Tuesday to consider details of agreement.

A meeting of the 27-power committee recessed for several hours when Charles Corbin, French ambassador to London, said he needed time to obtain further instructions.

OKED 'IN PRINCIPLE'

A French cabinet meeting, it was learned, has instructed Corbin to approve the plan "in principle" only.

The ministers, meeting with French President Albert LeBrun, decided France would insist on "substantial progress" in establishing control of Spain's ports and the withdrawal of foreign fighters before according insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco a belligerent's status.

Halt 3000 Trucks In Michigan Strike

DETROIT, (AP)—The statewide Michigan strike tying up from 3000 to 8000 trucks continued today with both sides looking to Governor Murphy for a solution.

Operators of truck lines doing business entirely within Michigan assembled in Lansing today and it was indicated the governor would be asked to intervene. The governor said Thursday he was confident of a quick settlement.

Italy and Germany accepted it as a basis for discussion. The critical question still remained, however, whether Italo-German and Franco-Russian differences can be reconciled.

British official opinion described reception of the proposals as "highly satisfactory" when many representatives of smaller powers accepted the plan in principle or for discussion.

CHINESE TROOP ADVANCE TO SCENE

TOKYO, (AP)—The Japanese war office, mobilizing for war on a national scale, announced today it had received reports the main forces of the Chinese army were advancing on both Peiping and Tientsin to support the 29th route army in its fight with Japanese troops in north China.

Tientsin is the north China headquarters of the Japanese army.

The war office estimated that more than 30 divisions—some 350,000 troops—were concentrated on the border of Shansi province just south of Hopeh province.

The first line of the Chinese army was said to have been established at Paoting, 75 miles south and slightly west of Peiping, while the advance elements of the Chinese forces were declared to be within 10 miles of the battle area.

Fleets of Chinese airplanes were reported to have increased their activity over the area which has been an unofficial battle ground since Japanese troops on night maneuvers and Chinese bridge guards started fighting at midnight July 7. Twelve miles west of Peiping.

With war apparently more imminent than at any stage of the tense crisis Japan began calling reserves to the color. Many of them were valued employees of American firms in Japan. Police reserves were called out and the guards about munitions plants, navy yards and public buildings were trebled.

CHINESE AMBASSADOR ASKS U. S. ACTION

Wehn is charged with a felony offense against the little girl in the basement of the La Habra school two weeks ago. The girl told Justice of the Peace A. C. Earley of Brea township that the crossing guard, employed by WPA to see children safely across streets after school, lured her into the basement.

There, she said, he made advances to her, warning her "not to tell mother and daddy." The girl rushed home and told her mother about the incident; and District Attorney's Investigator Bob Sandon arrested Wehn.

Justice Earley, after hearing the girl's testimony and deciding Wehn should be held to answer to the higher court on the morals charge, released the defendant on his own recognizance.

Bush, Wehn's attorney, several years ago sentenced a man to San Quentin and later married the prisoner's wife. He resigned after the case was brought to light.

BREEZES CHECK HEAT WAVE

By the Associated Press

Northwest breezes cooled most sections east of the Rockies today, checking a heat wave that caused approximately 400 deaths during the past 12 days.

J. R. Lloyd, of the Chicago weather bureau, said except for thundershowers in the northeastern areas, generally fair and cooler weather would prevail in the lower Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys and the Great Lakes region. He said the temperature would rise Saturday in the northern plains regions.

Unseasonably warm weather prevailed yesterday over most eastern and southern sections. Intermittent showers kept the temperature down in Chicago. The day's maximum was 89. New York's highest temperature yesterday was 96.

A wind, rain and electrical storm last night left Monroe, Mich., without lights or power. Fifty persons in a theater escaped injury when the wind ripped off the roof.

At Detroit, 10 passengers were taken to a hospital when lightning struck a street car.

Only four cities reported temperatures of 100 degrees or more yesterday. They were Dodge City, Kans., 100; El Paso, Tex., 102; Phoenix, 106, and Yuma, Ariz., 108.

as Dyer's counsel, when we know such is not the case?

2. Why has Dyer's wife been held as a material witness when the district attorney knows she cannot testify against him under the law?

3. Why have defense witnesses been discredited without a thorough investigation of their claims?

Several members of the Lawyers' club said they possessed information that Dyer's confession was obtained by force.

Meanwhile, District Attorney Burton Fitts ordered Haskell Wright, recreation director at Centinela park, from which the three Inglewood girls, Madeline and Melba Everett and Jeanette Stephens, were lured, held in technical custody. Wright is the man who insisted that a person known as "Eddie the Sailor" lured the girls from the park, and not Dyer.

He said the sailor was amusing the girls with tricks with a rope shortly before they disappeared.

Fitts said Wright was held on the charges of Olive Everett, sister of two of the slaying victims, that he had "molested" her in the past.

Wright was taken yesterday before the county grand jury, a short time after Olive appeared before that body. The Everett child, who identified three separate men as the man known as "Eddie the Sailor," told jurors that four Inglewood men had attacked her at various times in Centinela park, investigators said.

PACKERS FLING DENIAL IN FROZEN FRUIT SHIPPING CASE HERE

CLAIM BASIS OF CHARGE FALLS FLAT

Hearing Takes Place Here This Afternoon

Denial that sufficient grounds exist for a lawsuit filed here against 928 boxes of oranges is contained in a general demurrer filed in superior court yesterday afternoon.

The demurrer was entered by Attorney S. B. Kaufman, Anaheim, representing Anaheim packing house officials concerned in the case, which resulted from attempts to condemn the fruit.

Hearing on the demurrer was set for this afternoon by Superior Judge H. G. Ames. If the case goes to trial it probably will not be heard until the first week in August.

STATE ACTION
The case resulted from a petition filed in superior court by State Agricultural Inspector Joe Hightower, seeking condemnation of the fruit as being damaged beyond the state tolerance limit from frost.

It is charged that the frost-damaged oranges were in the hands of Edward W. Mills, manager of Anaheim Community Growers; the Western Growers; A. J. Miller, manager of Western Fruit Growers; Alex Jones, Ben Gelker, T. H. Peppers, president of Western Fruit; Herbert Miller, Anaheim Community Growers; and growers of the fruit, Joe Etchandy, Amelia Etchandy, Dominic Etchandy and John Etchandy.

LACKED NOTICE
This afternoon the defense was to claim that the agricultural code provides that shippers shall be given 24-hour warning to enable reconditioning of the damaged fruit.

It was to be claimed that in this case it was specified on the notice that the fruit was to be reconditioned for shipment to the by-products plant. This notice, it was to be claimed, would mean that the fruit could not be reconditioned to salvage all possible oranges, but meant shipment of the entire lot to the by-products plant.

Tells of Healing

The Rev. Mrs. Jackson, above, will tell a story of divine healing at the Four Square church here Saturday night.

A special service will be conducted Saturday night at the Four Square church, Fairview and Sycamore streets, by the Rev. Mrs. Jackson, wife of Evangelist Jackson. Mrs. Jackson's service will be in the form of a divine healing service, as she will give her testimony of how she was cured of a broken back.

Mrs. Jackson's back was broken in an automobile accident. She had 17 fractures of the spine, and was paralyzed instantly, left an invalid for one year, and wore a brace during that time. Her testimony has been given to audiences of thousands. The sick will be prayed for at the close of the service.

Saturday night the Rev. Clifford Musgrave, the Four Square pastor from La Habra, and his congregation will be present to assist in the service. Tonight at 7:30 Evangelist Jackson will preach on "The Black Horse."

A number of young people will assist in the service. The evangelistic services will continue over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ramseyer will arrange the programs at these services.

RECOVERY BAD FOR LIBRARY

Returning prosperity is bad for the library business.

That, at least, is librarian Ethel Walker's explanation for the decrease in circulation at Santa Ana's library during the past fiscal year.

In the annual library report released today, Miss Walker points out that the decrease in number of books loaned is 6.1 per cent over last year. Proving, she believes, two things: That the number of books people read is in inverse ratio to the amount of money they have to spend on recreation, and that all classes of readers are taking out better books and passing up light fiction, which is so rapidly read.

The daily average circulation during the year closing June 30 was 873. March proved to be the heaviest reading month, with a total of 29,985 books loaned.

Popularity of the Julia Lathrop branch increased steadily during the year, Miss Walker reported. All its circulation records were broken, as readers took out 71,344 books and magazines during the year—a figure representing an increase of 14,817 volumes over last year.

SAFECRACKERS STEAL $150

Safecrackers last night "pulled a job" in the Newport Heights Water company office and carried away $150 in currency.

Obviously the work of experienced thugs, according to investigating deputies James Workman and Herman Zabel, the door of the safe appeared to have been jimmied by experienced hands. No fingerprints or other clues were left.

The safecrackers entered the office through a rear window. Papers and checks in the safe were undisturbed.

The Newport office, which is located at 118 Eighteenth street, Costa Mesa, is shared by the Fairview Farm Water company.

Too-Sudden Stop Ends in Jail

A too-sudden stop in a highway traffic lane yesterday put Edmund S. Bradish, 425 East Shaw street, Long Beach, in the county jail, and his car in garage with a caved-in rear end.

Bradish's car was struck by a fast-moving sedan driven by David A. Vann, 16, of 8181 San Carlos, South Gate, when he turned into the right-hand lane on highway 60 and stopped.

Highway Patrolmen Heffner and Turton arrested Bradish on a charge of drunken driving.

Voorhees is charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his car had collided with an auto driven by David Oliver Worden.

GAS PLANT APPEAL NEAR

Los Angeles' plea for removal from assessment rolls of $2,000,000 worth of machinery at its Seal Beach electrical plant was to be on its way to the state board of equalization this afternoon.

Superior court here were to turn down that city's request for revision of Assessor James Sleeper's valuation, thus paving the way for an appeal to the state board and finally to the Orange county superior court.

Sleeper has assessed machinery in the plant, bought this year by the city of Los Angeles from a private corporation, as improvements to property. Los Angeles' attorneys claim it should be classed as personal property, not taxable under municipal ownership.

Sleeper acted under instructions of the state board in its assessment, and it was a foregone conclusion that the supervisors this afternoon, and the state board when it meets Monday, would deny the city's petition. A suit would be filed here in an attempt to force the machinery off the local assessment rolls.

MAYOR ATTENDS LEAGUE MEET

LIONS OFF TO CONVENTION

The special train carrying 120 California Lions to their international convention in Chicago will leave Los Angeles tonight—minus the three Santa Ana delegates.

All three of the men who have been named to attend the meet from this district are already in the East. President Frank Harwood, postmaster, has been there since July 2, visiting with friends and relatives. Nolan Doss, Santa Ana tire dealer, is now attending the Elks' meet in Denver, and will go East for the Lions' conclave. Vilas E. Childers, local poultryman, is now attending a poultry convention in Maryland, and plans to drop in on brother Lions on his Western trip.

The special Southern Pacific train will leave Los Angeles at 6 p. m. with more than 120 California Lions on board. Their itinerary calls for a stopover at the Texas Centennial at Dallas, arriving in Chicago Tuesday morning. The convention will be from Aug. 20 to 23.

Oranges from the Lions clubs in the citrus belt here have been sent East, and will be presented at the meet as a goodwill gesture from this district. Efforts will be made to bring the next international meet to Oakland.

Ray Arguello, Orange newsman, will be perhaps the only Orange county man on the special train.

John Ed Franklin, 26, of Hugo, Okla., is the youngest probation officer in the U. S. In addition, he supervises more cases than any other such officer.

'GAS' BLAST INJURES 10

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—A 10,000-gallon gasoline tank exploded after fire broke out at the Pure Oil company storage plant today. At least 10 persons were injured, including three firemen sprayed by the blazing fluid while dragging hose toward the group of six tanks.

Another 10,000-gallon drum and four smaller tanks were in the midst of a seething cauldron as the gasoline streamed over the ground and poured into the street of a tenement section.

A few minutes after the first tank burst with a thunderous report two other smaller explosions occurred. Nature of the second was not immediately determined, but the third was in a street sewer. The blast shot a manhole cover skyward, narrowly missing a fireman.

Joe Lopez, 18-year-old Anaheim youth, was sent today to Preston School of Industry after pleading guilty to a burglary charge before Superior Judge James L. Allen.

Lopez will remain on probation for 10 years after he completes a trade course at the state school. Judge Allen ruled. A stay of execution was granted until July 14, as Lopez's mother, Peta Labastida, is to be tried July 22 on charges of receiving stolen property in connection with the same offense.

WALTER R. ROBB

Death struck a severe blow at the Roosevelt administration group Tuesday when it removed from the arena of the supreme court measure fight the much-admired Senator Joe T. Robinson. Senator Robinson had been a powerful factor in Democratic party leadership over a long period. As a friend he was faithful, as a citizen honorable and as a legislator powerful. He was the leader in the senate for the administration forces. His going will greatly weaken the power of the group which champions the reorganization of the judicial branch of the government.

His sudden passing was made the more outstanding because of his long desire to become a member of the supreme court. His 40 years and more in politics was about to be rewarded with the outstanding honor of being appointed to the place recently made vacant by the resignation of Justice Van Devanter.

Senator Robinson's passing reminds men of the words of Shakespeare that, "All of life is a stage and its men and women merely players, they have their exits and their entrances, and each man in his time plays many parts." There is no permanence to human life. The world that today recognizes one man's leadership—tomorrow accepts leadership from another in his stead.

There is a lesson in this sudden demise of Senator Robinson which all those who favor a government by law instead of by men should not quickly forget—it is that there is no stability and permanence guaranteed in a government that is by men. The frailty of human life of itself makes this true. To build men's hopes and aspirations upon the possible continuance of a man may for a time prove to be a valiant leader is dangerous to all the interests of the governed. Therein lies the difference in a government by law as we as a people enjoy under the Constitution of the United States with its three branch form. The Constitution is the master law around which the principles the lesser laws of every community of the nation and of the nation itself must be built under our present set-up. "Men may come and men may go," but what assurance have the American people that Mr. Roosevelt will not go the way which the able senator from the State of Arkansas has gone? All men take that road soon or late. No, the American people still demand a government by law for in that form they know there is reasonable safety and assurance that their democratic privileges at great cost secured will be continued. Let's not forget the lesson which the sudden passing of Senator Joe T. Robinson has for us as American citizens in connection with the great controversy now raging in the councils of the nation.

With Mr. Roosevelt in the President's chair all might be well under a personal government, but what assurance have the American people that Mr. Roosevelt will not go the way which the able senator from the State of Arkansas has gone? All men take that road soon or late. No, the American people still demand a government by law for in that form they know there is reasonable safety and assurance that their democratic privileges at great cost secured will be continued. WORLD PEACE UP TO YOUTH, SAYS JUDGE

Georgia Bullock At Conference in London

LONDON. (AP)—Judge Georgia Bullock of the Los Angeles county superior court, told the World Fellowship of Faith assembly youth of all nations must be enlisted in fellowship if world peace is to be obtained.

"The challenge to modern youth," said Judge Bullock, "must be in the name of natural religion and it will succeed marvelously. What I am saying now is not a prophecy, it is a fact observable in the movements of literary criticism like that connected with the Nouvelle Revue franchise, also leading to religion."

"I shall mention as an example only one popular and strikingly successful movement which took its origin at Oxford about 20 years ago and known in 50 countries today as the 'Oxford Group.'"

"The simple question that imposes itself to all serious minded leaders of youth today is this—why and how is the Oxford Group so successful? Why has it won the interest and personal cooperation of some of the greatest political and educational leaders in Europe?"

"The answer strikes to the very foundation of human nature: The seat of honesty, in the conscience. Challenge youth in the name of honesty and youth will listen. The Oxford Group is placing before the world today the moral absolute, the only absolute immediately accessible to man, the absolute of honesty, purity, unselfishness and love."

Jack Doyle Wants Immediate Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Jack Doyle, Irish actor-boxer, has disclosed he intended to establish residence in Reno, Nev., preliminary to seeking a divorce from Judith Allen, film actress.

Before departing for the Nevada city by airplane Doyle told interviewers he had "fallen in love" and wanted a "quick divorce" to enable him to re-marry. The fighter declined to disclose the name of his bride-to-be, but said Lola Lane, former wife of Lew Ayres, film actor, with whom his name has been linked romantically, was not the lady.

Doyle said Miss Allen obtained an interlocutory divorce decree recently, but that he did not want to wait until it became final. Doyle came here from Hollywood. He said he was seeking to resume his boxing career and "hoped" to meet Champion Joe Louis in London in October.

PAN-AMERICAN CLIPPER 111 RETURNS TO NEWFOUNDLAND

SKY LINER—Airplane service across the north Atlantic, the last ocean frontier to be conquered by commercial aviation, entered its last stage with the flight to England via Newfoundland and Ireland of this graceful ship, the Pan American Clipper III. The flight was part of the experimental work of both Pan American and Imperial Airways of England.

ALL HANDS—These men composed the crew when the ship took off from Port Washington, N. Y., for the first trans-Atlantic hop: Left to right, Capt. H. E. Grey; W. S. De Lima, first officer; William Masland, navigator; C. D. Wright, engineering officer; Walter Smith, assistant engineering officer; Walter Etchison, third engineering officer; Thomas Roberts, radio operator, and William Thaler, steward.

ENGINE ROOM—Capt. Harold E. Grey (left), only 31, has commanded Clippers on trans-Pacific flights for the past year and is a seasoned pilot in ocean flying. Seated with him in the control room of the plane is W. S. De Lima, first officer.

Words Fail Mrs. Roosevelt As Radio Script Paper Lost

NEW YORK. (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, one of the nation's most experienced speakers, knew today what it meant to be at a loss for words.

The words were lost—literally.

A whole sheet of her radio script was missing when the President's wife, broadcasting over station WJZ last night with Hendrick Willem Van Loon, turned to page 9.

The first lady of the land became, temporarily, speechless. Page 9 was gone. She murmured in distress. There was a whispered conference, and then the program

Railroads Report 4% Income Gain

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The Association of American railroads report June operating revenues of class 1 carriers as $280,287,565, a 4.4 per cent increase over the corresponding month last year.

The association's figures were derived from preliminary reports from 93 carriers, representing 81.2 per cent of total rail operating revenues.

Freight revenues of the 93 roads were $223,166,818 during June, an increase of 5.1 per cent over June, 1936. Passenger revenues totaled $32,246,775, an increase of 11 per cent.

PLANES MAKE 2ND ATLANTIC CROSSING

BOTWOOD, Newfoundland. (AP) The Pan-American Clipper III landed in Botwood today at 7:52 a. m. 5:52 this morning, E.S.T., after a flight across the Atlantic from Foynes, Irish Free State, two hours and 20 minutes after the British flying boat Caledonia landed on the River Shannon after an eastward crossing.

The Caledonia's crossing required 12 hours and seven minutes from Botwood.

Captain Harold Gray, commander of the survey flight of the Atlantic Airways, set the Clipper down in Botwood harbor just 16 hours and 27 minutes after leaving Foynes for the return leg of the round trip. It was three minutes ahead of the unofficial schedule Captain Gray had set for his ship. The Caledonia made the same trip in 15 hours and nine minutes a week ago while the Clipper was flying east.

Today the two boats passed over the mid-Atlantic just as they did when they were flying in opposite directions on the first flights of the friendly race to gain supremacy of the Atlantic Airways by being first to establish regular commercial service.

The Caledonia beat the time made by the Clipper III on its eastern flight by 13 minutes.

2 GANGSTERS GET 'RIDE' IN LIQUOR CASE

Murders Follow U. S. Bootleg Indictments

NEW YORK. (AP)—Two murders bearing earmarks of typical gangland "rides" confronted Brooklyn police today, within 24 hours of the biggest batch of federal bootlegging indictments since prohibition repeal.

One of the victims was found early this morning, his skull crushed. Gasoline had been poured on and his body ignited. Police said identification would be difficult.

The other, identified as Samuel Silverman, 25, was found late yesterday in the charred ruins of an automobile, three bullet holes in his head and his body saturated with kerosene. A blonde woman reported in his company earlier was held for questioning.

Seeking a possible link between the killings and the indictment of 42 alleged bootleggers yesterday, Assistant District Attorney William F. McGuinness, in charge of the homicide investigation, said: "We cannot overlook the coincidence of these two killings, following on the heels of the first big bootlegging indictment since the end of prohibition. Both killings have all the signs of prohibition-time gang vengeance."

Acting Capt. George Gallagher said the man identified as Silverman was arrested a month ago for questioning in connection with a holdup. He said the suspect was released after giving information leading to the arrest of Nathan "Little Nattie" Kaufman, now in jail.

KIRBY'S PLANS SHOE SALE

Clyde C. Skinner, manager of the Kirby Shoe store here, announces that tomorrow the store will begin the greatest sale in its history. The entire shoe stock of over 10,000 pairs has been marked down to such an extent, according to Skinner, that the value-minded people of the county are sure to find plenty of real shoe values for the entire family.

"On account of the tremendous growth of the Kirby Shoe store," said Skinner, "we have prepared for the largest stock of fall shoes that ever came to Santa Ana, and to make room for this great fall shoe stock we must unload every pair of summer shoes possible, including the best of our men's, women's and children's shoes."

40-Year Hunt For Water Ends

AGANA, Guam. (American Wire)—A problem of 40 years' standing—that of securing an adequate and lasting water supply for the island population here was reported solved today.

Gov. McCandlish reported that well-digging machinery operated by naval personnel had reached a pure and stable water supply at a depth of 201 feet. Formerly all water used on the 30-mile strip of land which lies 5053 miles west of San Francisco, was rain water collected during the rainy season.

Highlights FROM THE Journal's Newsreel NOW SHOWING AT THE Broadway

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt visits Boy Scout jamboree and presents medal to representative of Dutchess county.

ILLINOIS—Refueling in the air from an auto. Pilot Doerr, trying for endurance record, swoops to ground for gas.

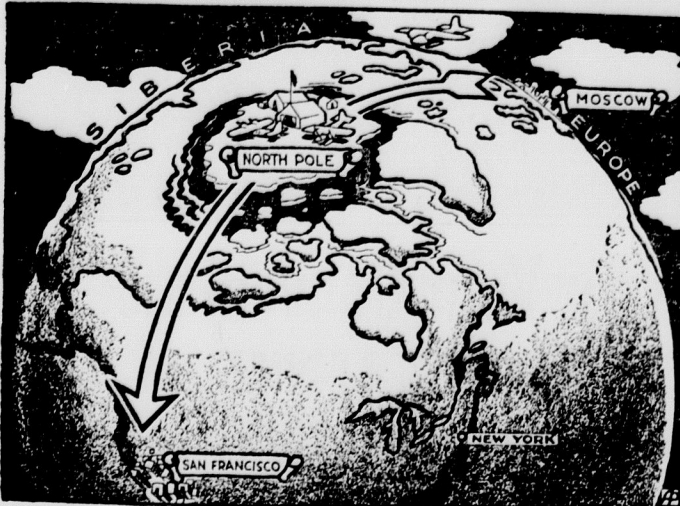

MONTANA—Some are dudes and some are cowboys, but bucking broncos play no favorites in the wild Livingston rodeo.

FASHIONS—Chic is the word for baby down at the beach. The youngest set struts its fancy play and bathing suits in height of style.

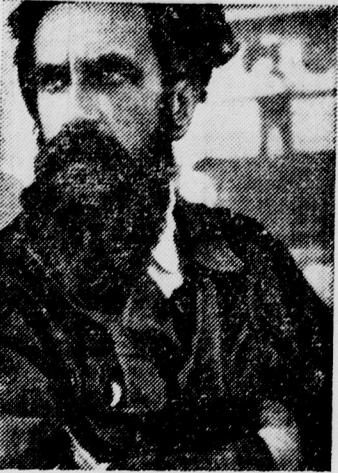

SPORTS—American Leaguers win All-star game. Outstanding players of both leagues stage thriller before President Roosevelt and 12,000 baseball fans at Washington. Lou Gehrig leads smashing attack on Dean, Hubbell and four National league pitchers with terrific homer and double.

WRESTLING—Our bare-faced champion, Les Lehr, takes a beating from a finish fight. Lehr goes a buy-a-batter and skews the count of 10.

Red Columbus Paved Way For 'Pole Vaulters'

OVER THE TOP—Another Columbus, Russia's bewhiskered Prof. Otto Schmidt, sought a new route to the west. He knows the world is round, however, for he's sitting on top of it, 13 miles from the North Pole. As leader of the advance party for the Northern Sea route, he did the unspectacular ground work for the great polar flights.

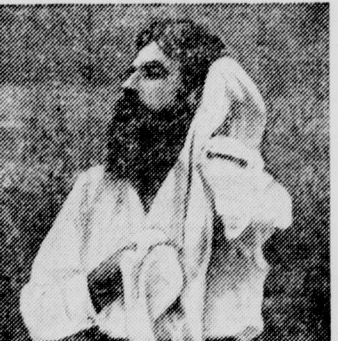

RECORD BREAKER—Professor Schmidt, who is 46, has been advancing the red flag into the far north ever since 1928. In 1932 he completed by icebreaker in two months the difficult northeast passage from Europe to the Pacific. The trip, a step toward commercial development of the north coast, usually took two or three years.

ICE BATH—He's used to washing in snow, for when he tried to repeat the voyage in a commercial vessel the ship was crushed by ice and he was marooned on a floe for weeks in 1934. The party was finally taken off by planes, and Schmidt was flown to Nome, Alaska, to be treated for pneumonia.

DANGEROUS BUSINESS—Schmidt knows the danger of living on an ice cake, as at the pole, for he has seen his camp split in two like this (when the Cheliuskin was wrecked in 1934). U. S. weather experts, expecting that polar reports will aid broadcasting, says the Russians will have 24 hours of daylight every day till September; also that the Moscow-San Francisco route, almost a straight line, crosses the path of maximum cyclone frequency on the European side and again in British Columbia.

WATER BATH—Schmidt doesn't live on ice all the time. Here he dries off after a swim in a river flowing through his country place, near Moscow. He is married, has one son and has been decorated twice by the Soviet for his northern achievements.

HERE'S THE POLE—While his greatest fame comes from his explorations, Schmidt has many sidelines. He has been lecturer, professor of mathematics at Moscow State university, editor of the Great Soviet encyclopedia and holder of many governmental posts.

Red Hair's No Sign of Temper, Says Professor

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The popular belief that persons with red hair have a temper is discounted by Dr. D. B. Klein, professor of psychology at the University of Texas. "No relation has been worked out yet between a certain characteristic and a given bodily trait," he says. "The average person may remember only the outstanding examples when he forms an opinion. The belief that a person with red hair has a bad temper is a popular one. No doubt every person can think of an example among people he has known. We tend to forget the ones with mild tempers and remember only the hot-headed ones."

Need 2000 Hens For 'Little' Ranch

BERKELEY. (AP)—The answer to what people mean when they plan to "get a little place and raise chickens" has been sought by University of California scientists. They find that poultry raising should not be attempted without 2000 hens as well as adequate land and equipment. If the owner is not encumbered by debt he may start with as few as 1000, according to the study, prepared by Arthur Shultis. Properly managed, a 2000-hen chicken ranch should yield $2000 a year, the investigations show.

Why Orientals Buy Gall Stones Stumps Packers

CHICAGO. (AP)—A puzzle in the meat packing industry which even the packers cannot solve is—what do orientals do with the gall stones they buy? The stones, one of more than 126 cattle by-products, sell at prices ranging from $75 to $125 a pound. Japanese and Chinese buyers snap up all they can get and never haggle over the cost. When asked why they are willing to pay so much, the buyers merely smile and shrug their shoulders. One explanation is that orientals, especially the Chinese, use powdered gall as a base for medicine to build strength, keep themselves awake, reduce fever, revive dying persons and to drive evil spirits from the body. It is also said they use it as a dye for tinting chinaware. The stones, found in the gall bladder of mature cows and steers, vary in size from a pinhead to a bird's egg. Packers say that 100,000 cattle yield about one pound of gall stones.

ARMY RACKET BARED Discoveries of bribery in the Japanese army have revealed a racket reaching back as far as 1928. Despite the secrecy attending court-martial hearings in Tokyo the facts made public deeply involve the munition industry. One of the accused is Lieutenant General Haruhiko Uemura, retired.

Bird Nests Precipitate Nanking Crisis

NANKING. (AP)—Nesting time means trouble time for the capital's power company and candle lit hours for its inhabitants. Trees are plentiful in Nanking, but the city's crow and magpie population have gone modern to such an extent that they prefer electric wire clusters to grove and woodland home sites. Wet twigs laid across two or more live wires have blown so many fuses and burned out so many insulators of late that the power company has appealed to the police to protect overhead lines, by force if necessary.

NEW LIFE FOR OLD SHIP The British admiralty has acquired the old Atlantic liner Majestic for use as a training ship. After being reconstructed it will be berthed at Rosyth, England, where it will be renamed H. M. S. Caledonia, and will be a home for 1500 boys, it is announced in London.

Writing From China? Don't Tell Secrets

SHANGHAI. (AP)—For a few cents, professional letter writers will turn out a missive on love, business or just folksy chit chat for the folks back on the farm. Plenty of flourishes and a semi-classical style mark the prose of the professionals who still hold forth from one end of the country to the other although the government's drive on illiteracy may eventually mean their doom. The only disadvantage is that everybody else knows what you're writing, too. Curious passersby stop to listen to the letter as it is dictated and even peek over the writer's shoulders as he brushes the mysterious characters.

TRAVELS AT HOME CARROLLTON, O. (AP)—John T. Maple, 73, retired rural mail carrier, traveled more than 175,000 miles (seven times around the world) without having ventured more than a dozen miles from home.

Ancient Shipwreck Gave Lloyd Banks His Name

City Auditor Lloyd Banks has applied for membership in the Sons of the American Revolution and in so doing has revealed an unusual fact about his family name.

The name used to be Oysterbanks, the city auditor's application showed today. In the good old days folks got their names through unusual incidents which occurred to them on striking feats they performed. Banks got his name because his great-great-great-great grandfather was shipwrecked as a baby.

When the distant ancestor and his parents were on their way to this country from England in an old sailing vessel, their craft was wrecked. But they were close to land and somehow the baby was floated to shore. The infant was found on the oyster banks of New England. Nobody knew who he was. So they called him Oysterbanks, and because he was picked up more or less like Moses in the bullrushes, they gave him Moses for a first name. Years passed, and the modern world began to introduce time-saving devices. It took more time to say Oysterbanks than to say just plain Banks. Now the name is Banks.

Banks claims his eligibility to the Sons of the American Revolution from the fact that Moses Oysterbanks served 18 months in the American Revolution.

THE SCORE Jones' wife had been unusually silent during the concert, but it was obvious something was puzzling her. "By the way," she said, when a piece came to an end, "what's that book the conductor keeps looking at?" "That's the score of the overture," he replied. "Oh," she exclaimed, "who's winning?"—Pearson's Weekly.

POSTOFFICE STEEL STRIKE ACTION HIT

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) said in a report to the senate the postoffice department had "taken sides" in the recent steel strike because it "refused to deliver" mail to strike-bound plants.

He filed with the senate a minority report on the postoffice committee's investigation of alleged interferences with the mails and demanded that a complete senate inquiry be made.

The committee held hearings several weeks ago on a resolution by Bridges calling for investigation of charges that strikers had hindered the mails. At the same time it considered a resolution by Senator Guffey (D-Pa.) calling for an investigation of the tactics of the steel corporations involved.

New Dressing Makes Salads Tempting

What is more tempting than a salad—it can be both beautiful and delicious—if it has the right dressing. For it is the dressing that makes the salad; an attractive salad is only as good as its dressing.

There are three types of dressings: mayonnaise, cooked and French, all delicious and each lending itself to many variations. The important point to remember is "the dressing must suit the salad."

SOUR CREAM DRESSING

Ingredients required: Half cup of freshly soured cream, 3 tablespoons of vinegar, 1 teaspoon sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper or paprika to taste.

The cream may be whipped stiff or left plain. Add the vinegar, sugar and seasonings, and serve over cabbage, lettuce or cucumbers. The dressing may be cooked with a beaten egg and poured hot over cabbage for old-fashioned hot slaw. If a sweeter taste is desired, increase the sugar to suit the taste.

COOKED SALAD DRESSING

Ingredients required: One-fourth cup of sugar (less may be used), 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon of mustard, ¼ teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons flour, 4 egg yolks, or 2 whole eggs, ½ cup vinegar, ½ cup water, 3 tablespoons of butter or salad oil may be added.

Blend the sugar, salt, mustard, paprika and flour. Add the egg yolks and beat until smooth and well mixed. Add the vinegar and water and cook over hot water until the mixture is thick and smooth.

Add the butter, remove from the fire, and chill before using. If salad oil is added it may be stirred in while hot or cold. One cupful of sweet or sour cream, plain or whipped, may be added.

PARISIAN DRESSING

To a foundation French recipe add: Two tablespoons chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped red pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped celery, ½ tablespoon chopped onion and ½ tablespoon chopped parsley. Mix well. This dressing is very good on either a lettuce and watercress salad or a Julienne vegetable salad.

CHIFFONADE DRESSING

Ingredients required: To a foundation French dressing add 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 2 teaspoons chopped onion, 1 hard cooked egg, chopped, and ¼ cup cooked peas, chopped. This dressing is grand on either a Romaine salad or a cabbage salad.

Cooling Aides Refreshing On Hot Days

Another hot summer day and we need to plan to have refreshing glasses of this and that on hand for those who are busily engaged in a game of tennis or golf. Be sure to save all the fruit juices left from canning, especially from maraschino cherries; they are delicious in lemonade. When you use maraschino cherry syrup you will not need sugar.

FRUIT FLIP

Boil ¾ cup sugar, 1 cup orange juice and 1 orange rind, cut in thin strips, for 5 minutes, then cool. Add 1½ cups strong cold tea, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and the contents of a No. 2 can of unsweetened pineapple juice. Serve over cubes of frozen gingerale or ice. This makes 1 quart, or 8 punch glasses.

CHILLED FRUIT JUICES

Ingredients required: 1 cup sugar, 1 cup water, 2 cups orange juice, 1 cup lemon juice, 1½ cups raspberry juice, 2 cups iced tea, 4 cups ice water.

Boil sugar and water 2 minutes. Cool. Add rest of ingredients. Chill, serve in glasses half filled with chopped ice. Serves 12.

FROSTED CHOCOLATE MALT

Ingredients required: 1 quart milk, ½ pint chocolate ice cream, 4 heaping tablespoons chocolate malted milk powder.

Combine the milk and powder malted milk and then add the ice cream by spoonfuls. Shake vigorously in a bottle beverage shaker, or beat with an egg beater or some all purpose kitchen mixer until frothy and well mixed. Or if you do not care for the chocolate. Use plain powdered malted milk with vanilla, strawberry, maple or other ice cream. Add flavoring or fruit as the fancy strikes you.

LIME AND JAVA RICKEY

One half cup lime juice, 4 tablespoons coffee, 1 cup boiling water, cup sugar, 2 eggs, few grains salt.

Make coffee infusion by percolating coffee and water for 15 minutes or by drip method, pouring infusion over grounds twice. Add sugar and lime juice to infusion and add to eggs beaten until frothy. Dilute with 1 cup boiling water and cool. When ready to serve fill with shaved ice and pour over coffee and egg mixture.

Baby Taj Mahal Nears Completion

LONDON. (American Wire)—London's first mosque is expected to be completed by the end of the year at West Kensington. It will be a miniature edition of the Taj Mahal. There are only approximately 3000 Moslems in England today the church is expected to hold 1000 persons. Since England's Moslems are so scattered the church probably will be filled only on religious holidays.

PAY-LESS TO OFFER NEW SHOPPING AID

Home-Owned Mart Cuts Buyer's Work

It remained for a home-owned, home-operated organization to introduce an innovation in shopping convenience. The Pay-Less Market offers something new in the way of shopping aid—the market basket, which removes the drudgery of carrying your packages from department to department. Now all you have to do is select your basket carrier, which is equipped with rubber tires, start along the wide aisles, make your purchases and wheel the carrier right up to the man who does the packing. No more will you have to change your heavily loaded basket from one hand to the other. That burden has been removed by the thoughtful Pay-Less management, which is always thinking of your convenience and comfort, whether in equipment or foods.

This super-deluxe Pay-Less Food Market has rapidly established itself in the favor of the people of Santa Ana and Orange county. As a recognition of the wonderful reception on the part of the buying public, Pay-Less will make astonishing offers in price and value next Friday and Saturday, the big food trading days, so you can "get more for what you pay, and pay less for what you get." The management in this manner expresses its appreciation of its customers, and extends the invitation to new ones. In every department of this great store values will not only attract your attention but meet your approval.

Nothing has been overlooked in the way of merchandise and convenience. Located at Second and Sycamore streets, extensive floor space all on the first floor, free auto park, courteous attendants and clerks, all ready to serve you promptly and efficiently, your needs have actually been anticipated. You will like the Pay-Less service. This attractive food market embodies everything that goes into a well-managed and well equipped nutriment establishment. It features the best in groceries, critical in its selection of vegetables, accepts only the choicest in meats and delicatessen, and has made provision for your pasty palatability in a bakery operated by Miss Viebeck, who carries all of those tempting delicacies you like so well.

As you go from department to department during the two special days set aside for what the management might call "Appreciation Days," your loyalty and satisfaction for Pay-Less will grow. To aid you in making your selections this store herewith carries a large list of items and prices. You can familiarize yourself with the extensive lists and tabulate your own wants from the advertisement. Naturally in a store of this extent and merchandising range, other items will come to your attention as you do your shopping, but attentive clerks will be available to assist you in case something special is wanted. Pay-Less will have it.

This food market—the Pay-Less—invites you to bring your friends, to become their guests, to get acquainted both with the personnel and the merchandise. To inspect what the management believes to be one of the most inviting settings for a food market in Orange county, located conveniently where the pepper trees grow—a familiar Santa Ana landmark.

Adequate information about Pay-Less Food Market cannot be supplied in brief space. The store is too large to enumerate the individual bargains to be offered Friday and Saturday. It is a new store which has leaped into spontaneous favor. The management wants you to know more about it. It wants the opportunity to prove the high character of its merchandise, and the thoughtfulness which has gone into its organization. Those are the reasons why you have a special invitation to become their guests next Friday and Saturday. You will see the very latest in food markets.

This home-owned and home-operated organization will be ready to welcome you and serve you.

WILLING TO OBLIGE
An itinerant musician was stranded in a village one Sunday morning, and, as he was playing his cornet in the street, he was approached by the clergyman of the parish, who said: "Do you know the fourth commandment, my good man?"
"No," the man replied, "but if you'll just whistle it over, I'll do my best."

$510,000 SUIT OVER 'RESCUE' IRES MAGNATE

L.A. Woman Detective Claims Rough Usage

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Thomas Warner, sr., automobile accessory manufacturer, faced with a $510,000 damage suit, admitted today he was "very annoyed" and added: "That's all I've got to say."

Mrs. Pearl Antibus, Hollywood detective, sued the former General Motors director, charging he instigated a raid on her home to "rescue" his son, Thomas Warner, jr. Twelve investigators of the district attorney's office, who are alleged to have participated in the raid, also are named as "John Doe" defendants.

District Attorney Byron Fitts declared the raid, which Mrs. Antibus claims was illegal, was made at Warner's request. Both Fitts and Chief Investigator Eugene Williams said the elder Warner claimed his son was being held against his will.

Mrs. Antibus alleged she was roughly used in the raid. Investigators Williams said young Warner was found and taken, biting and kicking, from the home.

Fitts said young Warner had been meeting a young woman in the home of Mrs. Antibus against his father's wishes. After the raid, a "peace party" was held in his office. Fitts said, which "all was forgiven" and the young woman, a prospective divorcee, received something in the nature of parental blessing from the elder Warner.

TEWFIK KEEPS UP CHASE

since Hapsburg days. All it needed was a long-haired waltz composer to make it an immortal classic.

Whirling through mad nights of laughter and dancing, Maria and retinue of gilded youths from the aristocracy found the aged Egyptian more than their match.

Was it dancing till dawn at Papa Huebner's palace on historic Coblenz hill? Tewfik would trip the light fantastic with the best of them. Was it the excursions on the lake, trips to the mountains, late suppers in the smoke-stained cellars of some old wine shop. Wherever Maria was Tewfik went.

HE BECAME HEAD MAN

Persistently he cut out her young admirers, one by one. And just as persistently he worked on Papa Huebner. He pointed out how even if riots in Cairo's streets had brought his cabinet down, they hadn't brought down the thriving business interests which enabled him to own luxurious houses, fast cars, racing stables and to live in Europe's most expensive hotels—hotels like those from which Papa Huebner drew his own dividends.

Crafty, scheming, his wits sharpened by years of astute political dealings with Egypt's polygot racial factions, Tewfik was the man for the assignment he had set himself to carry out.

A month ago Vienna was informed that Maria and Tewfik were betrothed—and nightly conferences were held in the clubrooms of Vienna's ancient Salle d'Armes, the fencing school of old aristocracy. Maria, the gilded youths who had admired her admitted, was not exactly "first family"—her father was, really, not much more than an innkeeper, but all the same, engaged to an Egyptian, and a 64-year-old Egyptian at that. Something, they decided, must be done.

And so they started, that coterie of young men, to break up the engagement of Tewfik and their beloved Maria.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN

Now the engagement is broken. Tewfik has posted off to Cairo in a rage and Maria is missing. She's missing with all the trimmings of Hollywood—note on the dressing table and all, but not through the efforts of the society youths.

For unnoticed, unknown—disregarded by the sons of Vienna's first families, was a dark-eyed gigolo in Papa Huebner's swankiest night club. He is known only as "Max" to the dowagers who tipped him handsomely for an evening of tango and soft words. He's known as "Max" to employees at the Stadpark and other resorts who now admit, guardedly, that Max and Maria were the handsomest couple on the floor on many a night after the boys who courted her with her father's approval had paid their respects, said good night, and gone.

Under the very noses of the most eligible young men of Vienna she has twice been stolen away—once by the aged Egyptian and then from the Egyptian by a tango dancer.

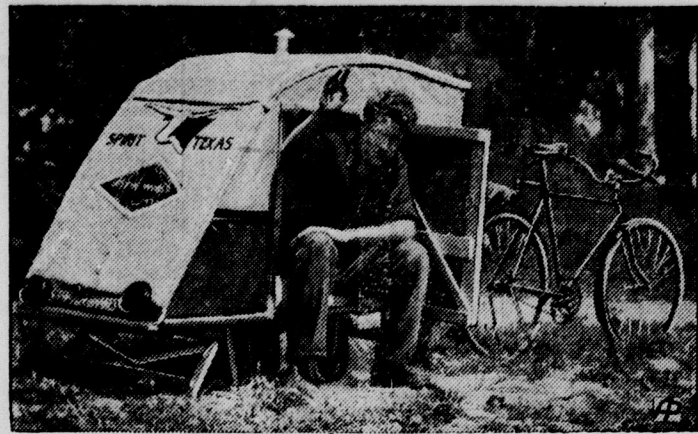

AND THEN MAX LEFT

True to type, Max accepted a handsome present from Papa Huebner and left Vienna for a two years' vacation. Maria is in retreat, "staying with girl friends at Woetherlake," and in the coffee houses of the Ring, romantic young men buy a rose from sidewalk flower sellers in memory of Maria. She was too beautiful.

Papa Huebner, the hub about which whirled the whole mad, romantic story, runs his restaurants, hotels, night clubs. He says nothing. He does nothing.

Papa Huebner, puffing his pipe, is the last scene in the romantic opera bouffe of Maria, Max and Tewfik Mohammed Nassim Pasha, former premier of Egypt and a jilted, 64-year-old suitor.

TO OUTLINE FOOD LAWS

Legislation affecting the food business will be discussed at a meeting of market operators here July 21, it was announced today by Secretary S. M. White of the Southern California Retail Grocers association.

White said the meeting will be of considerable importance to the food industry, and that arrangements have been completed to hold the event in the Santa Ana city hall.

W. D. Hader, secretary of the California Retail Grocers and Merchants association, and other leaders in the food industry will meet with members of the Orange county group to discuss new and amended legislation that vitally affects the food trade.

Hader attended all sessions of the recent state legislature, and is in a position to explain in detail all the ramifications of the new laws, it was announced. Hader also will discuss tentative plans for the coming annual state convention to be held at Del Monte, starting Sept. 20.

All local members of the food industry are cordially invited to bring their employees to the meeting, which will start at 8:15 p. m.

Extend Time on Wage Reports

SACRAMENTO. — Extension of time to Aug. 15 for reporting wage earnings on form DE-342, was authorized today by the California Unemployment Reserves commission.

The forms, which carry a report of earnings by quarters for the year 1936, and the first quarter of 1937, were due in the offices of the commission yesterday. Owing to the amount of work necessary to prepare the reports, the commission announced another month had been granted employers.

As a result of the commission's action in requesting the forms, it is estimated that some 1,300,000 reports, one for each worker subject to the unemployment reserves act, from 20,000 subject employers eventually will be received here. A good portion of the reports already have been sent to the commission.

TRIBUTE FOR NEW PASTOR

Methodists of Santa Ana will gather tonight to welcome the Rev. Henry I. Rasmus, jr., new pastor of the First Methodist church, succeeding the Rev. George A. Warner, who transferred to Riverside.

The reception, a public affair, will be held at 8 p. m. in the social hall of the church, and follows a series of events in Pasadena, where the Rev. Mr. Rasmus formerly was stationed, at which high tributes were paid the minister.

One night this week nearly 600 persons assembled in Tournament park, Pasadena, to honor the Rev. Mr. Rasmus. Friends of the popular minister and his wife made up a cash purse of about $400 and also presented them with a book containing signatures of friends.

In recognition of the service of the Rev. Mr. Rasmus in Pasadena, the following resolution was adopted:

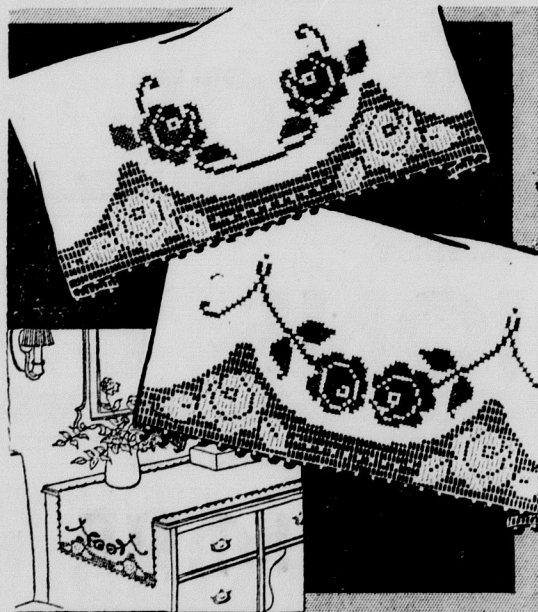

"Recognizing your exceptional mental acquirments and habitual studious research; your dynamic and attractive preaching, your refined and humble sensibilities and character; your all-around ability to get large and useful tasks accomplished without friction; your rare gifts and graces in combining scholarship and evangelism, and your grasp and ability to cope with the difficult problem of young people, we desire to commend you and your beloved and appreciated companion to your new field of opportunity and responsibility."

At the public reception here tonight, O. H. Barr will act as master of ceremonies. The Dorcas society of the church is arranging the affair.

Bad News For British Beards

PLYMOUTH, Eng. (AP) — All beard lovers in England were startled to hear the public declaration of Capt. L. C. Schlotel, an anti-gas expert: "Should an emergency arise, those with beards more than a hand long might be faced with the alternative of either cutting their beards off or being gassed."

COURT BILL VOTE SLATED NEXT WEEK

Wheeler Thinks Senate
Will Kill Legislation

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana, predicted the senate will vote "early next week" on sending the supreme court reorganization legislation back to the judiciary committee.

"The vote will be close but I think the bill will go back," Wheeler said.

Returning the bill to the hostile committee, which reported the measure embracing the President's plan unfavorably by a 10 to 8 vote, would kill the bitterly contested court legislation for this session.

Senator Wheeler said he thought the vote on recommitment would come on Wednesday. He said the opponents "will know more later today about what may happen."

FILE TAX LIENS ON RADIO STARS

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — Claims against Donald Novis, radio and screen tenor, and Jacobs Staviski, orchestra leader, known as Jacques on the Eddie Cantor radio program, were among several income tax liens which Internal Revenue Collector Nat Rogan filed yesterday.

The claim against Novis is for an additional $952 on his 1935 income and that against Staviski for $139 more on his 1933 income.

Another lien claimed $553 for 1934 income tax due from Joe "Toots" Mondt, former wrestler, now a wrestling manager.

INDICT ALLEGED COUNTERFEITER

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — Charles A. Lamb, Burbank, studio worker, was indicted by the federal grand jury yesterday on a charge of counterfeiting. Numerous moulds and counterfeit coins were found in his possession, secret service agents told the grand jury.

Ira Goldinson, Lola Gonzales and Azor Mendoza were jointly charged with transporting narcotics in other indictments while Curtis L. Williams, Venice salesman, was charged with transporting Thelma Francis Wolf to Honolulu for immoral purposes.

L. A. County to Get Flood Control Fund

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Presidential approval of the non-military appropriation bill, on which congress completed action today, will make approximately $20,000,000 available for construction work on the Los Angeles flood control project during 1937-38.

Army engineers indicated at senate hearings they expected to expend only $16,500,000 during the fiscal year, but they also may, under terms of the measure, enter into contracts for an additional $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 of New York.

Film Actress, 9, Now Uncle's Ward

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — The movies' nine-year-old Sybil Jason has become the ward of her uncle, Harry Jacobson, as a result of proceedings which disclosed that her parents in South Africa are estranged.

Jacobson and Sybil's older sister, Anita, have managed the young actress' affairs since she came to this country two years ago. Sybil had a contract with the Warner studio, until a few months ago, paying her $250 a week.

Lemons Sell for $9.05 Per Box

CLEVELAND, Ohio. — Ten cars of California lemons sold at auction through the Consolidated Fruit Exchange Monday for a general average of $7.82 per box. Desirable sizes sold as high as $9.05 per box.

This was the heaviest sale of lemons in any one day in the history of this auction market. Even with the heavy offering, the market went up 50 to 75 cents per box and in some cases as much as $1.

Building a Home at the North Pole

Well-provisioned and with best communications equipment, the Soviet polar camp was established on drifting ice. Tents were pitched; ice blocks were packed about them. Here is a home-building scene a few miles from the North Pole. In spite of extreme cold and the inconveniences of heavy clothing, the men reported they were quite comfortable.

ATLANTIC MAIL BILL APPROVED

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The house postoffice committee has approved a bill providing for Transatlantic Air Mail Service.

British and American flying boats already are making experimental trips with a view to inaugurating regular service this fall. Congress has appropriated money to help start it.

The measure sets a 20 cent postage rate for a half ounce letter.

The committee also approved a measure authorizing experimental domestic air mail services. Chairman Mead (D., N.Y.) indicated the experiments might include transcontinental stratosphere flights.

SALINAS RODEO UNDER WAY

SALINAS, (AP) — Gov. Frank Merriam came here yesterday to open the 26th annual California rodeo.

The four-day western show, featuring the leading cowboys of the nation, will close Sunday. Prior to the official opening, Governor Merriam was scheduled to announce the winner of the "finest outdoor high school girl" contest.

Thirty-three girls, finalists in high school competition in as many counties of the state, will be considered for the title to rule over the rodeo. The winner will be awarded with a trip to Mexico City.

RECOVERS $5500 LOOT IN BATTLE

LINDEN, Tenn. (AP) — Within less than an hour after the First National bank was held up yesterday, Sheriff Van Dodson recovered the $5500 loot, and captured two men he had engaged in a pistol fight.

He gave their names as Oliver Adkins, about 50, and his nephew, Robert Adkins, about 30, a former clerk in the bank. Charges of bank robbery and attempt to commit murder were placed against them. The sheriff said they fired at him 11 times.

Because rural jurors are more familiar with measuring distances by paces rather than by feet, Oklahoma's new highway patrolmen are checked for length of stride.

Change Name of Culver City? Sure, If Voters Approve It

CULVER CITY, (AP) — Culver City is going to change its name to Hollywood or something else.

A committee of six, appointed by the mayor, is mailing cards immediately to the suburb's 3200 voters asking:

"Do you favor changing the name of Culver City to Hollywood City?"

There also will be a blank space for the voter to write in a name of his own choice.

"We've got to get rid of this name, which doesn't mean a thing," Blaine Walker, one of the committeemen, said today. "For more than 20 years we've been the center of the motion picture industry. We furnish the fuel for the fires of publicity and get in return, heat but no warmth."

Three studios are located in Culver City. The other dozen are scattered about the area called Hollywood, which is a section of Los Angeles, and in Studio City, Universal City and Burbank.

Mounties, Missionaries Sail To Start New Canadian Town

MONTREAL, (Canadian Press). — The patrol ship of the arctic, R. M. S. Nasopie has sailed to mark a new spot on Canada's map during a 10,000-mile cruise into Hudson Bay.

The Nasopie will discharge a Hudson Bay company contingent to form a new trading post on Ballot Strait, between the Canadian mainland and North Somerset island.

The new post will be Fort Hearne, on a spot no white man is known to have visited since 1934. The most isolated point to be visited is Craig Harbor, Ellesmere Island, the British empire's most northerly post office.

Among the 83 who sailed were 11 mounted police, for patrol work on the arctic beat; four missionaries, and five tourists, including W. K. Queen of Boston, who was with the 1933-34 Byrd Antarctic expedition.

MAY ADJUST OIL FIELD LEVIES

HANFORD, Calif. (AP) — After hearing testimony for drastic reductions of assessments levied on Kettleman Hills oil properties by County Assessor George Murray, the Kings county board of supervisors, sitting as a board of equalization, took the problem of an equitable adjustment under consideration.

Oil company officials, geologists and engineers gave testimony. The Standard Oil Company petition asked a reduction to $18,713 from an assessment of $1,570,500 and the Middle Dome corporation requested a reduction of $28,639 from an assessment of $999,500.

J. R. Pemberton, formerly a geologist of the Doheny interests, and now State Oil Umpire, declared the $2,570,000 valuation placed on the Middle Dome area was "ridiculous." He asserted not bank robbery and attempt to commit murder were placed against them. The sheriff said they fired at him 11 times.

Commodore Oliver H. Perry, hero of the naval battle of Lake Erie during the War of 1812, is commemorated by the Kentucky county bearing his name.

PLAN U. S. GOLD SALE TO BRAZIL

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Informed administration officials said a new agreement between the two countries would provide for the sale of United States gold to Brazil.

Those persons said the gold probably would be used by Brazil in its monetary operations.

The agreement, which was expected to be made public late today, would climax a round of conferences between Arthur De Souza Costa, Brazilian finance minister, and state department and treasury officials.

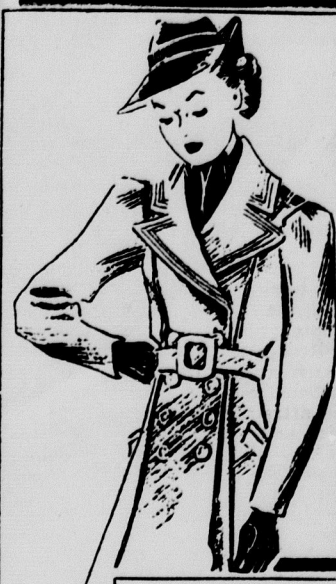

Last week, the treasury announced a similar agreement with China.

In the Chinese accord, this country agreed to trade gold for China's silver.

PSYCHIC SAYS AMELIA SAFE ON ISLAND

Girlhood Chum Visions Rescue This Week-End

SEATTLE. (AP)—Gene Dennis, internationally noted psychic, said her girlhood neighbor, Amelia Earhart, is alive and safe on a South Seas island and will be rescued "possibly this week-end."

Miss Dennis, in private life the wife of J. Von Herberg, Seattle theater magnate, said Miss Earhart's husband, George Putnam, had appealed to her in a series of long distance telephone conversations and sent her a pair of Miss Earhart's stockings and a handkerchief of Miss Earhart's navigator, Frederick J. Noonan, to aid her psychic efforts.

Miss Earhart and Miss Dennis lived across the street from each other in Atchison, Kans.

She said Putnam called her after returning to his Los Angeles home from San Francisco a few days ago.

Miss Dennis said Noonan and Miss Earhart reached a small island—"there are numerous small islands in the area and the name 'Gelbert' has come to me in connection with them."

"Fishing boats or a fishing boat will discover the flyers," she added. "I believe they reached a small island under a terrific tropical sun that makes visibility from the air difficult."

"And this is odd," she added, "I see her writing poetry. Mr. Putnam said it would be like her to take her mind off her problems and worries by writing."

Newton Baker's Illness 'Better'

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP)—Newton D. Baker, Cleveland, Ohio, lawyer and secretary of war under President Roosevelt, is suffering from a "slight cerebral thrombosis," an attending physician said today.

"The condition, also described by the physician as a 'vascular accident,' was said to be 'clearing up rapidly.'"

"Mr. Baker's condition is not alarming, and unless something most unexpected happens, he will leave for home by the first of the week," the doctors said.

Girls Missing; Search Is Asked

SAN LUIS OBISPO. (AP)—Police were asked yesterday to search for Lucille Landice, 15, and Maxine McLaughlin, 14, reported missing by their parents.

Miss Landice was described as weighing 145 pounds with brown hair and hazel eyes, and wearing blue jeans and shirt. Her companion weighs 110 pounds, has brown hair and eyes and a mole on her left cheek.

The girls' parents said they had searched Southern California without results.

CHARGE EDEN
SURRENDERED TO FASCISTS

British House Stirred
Over Intervention Plan

LONDON. (AP)—Labor Leader Clement P. Attlee charged Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden with having "surrendered to Fascist powers" tonight in opening foreign affairs debate in commons on the British compromise plan to reform the European non-intervention patrol of Spain.

Eden's suggestion for granting limited belligerent rights to insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco, as well as to the Spanish government, inspired Oppositionist Attlee's charge.

He accused Italy and Germany of fostering proposals which are "crude and obvious attempts to weigh the scales against the Spanish government."

Attlee called Britain's proposal "unjust, ill conceived and dangerous" and ridiculed the whole non-intervention history. He said that thus far the scheme merely had checked the hands of the Spanish government, while "Fascist powers are ready to strike."

Eden replied that the "governments of Europe know that if non-intervention breaks down, the risks of European conflict thereby are inevitably increased."

"It may be we shall be unable to avoid reaching that point, but every nation in Europe is reluctant to approach that abyss."

U. C. DEVELOPS
NEW CEREALS

Approximately two-thirds of all the cereal grains now being grown in California, including many new varieties which are superior in yield and quality to those formerly grown, have been developed or introduced by the University of California Agricultural Experiment Station, according to Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg.

Each year the seeds of new and improved varieties of cereals are grown at the experiment station. These are distributed through the California Approved Seed association, whose members test out the seed for application to local conditions. They also cooperate with the representatives of the Agricultural Extension Service in examination of the seed fields.

Through this work the purity of the seed is guaranteed until the seed can be increased sufficiently for distribution. During the past year seed for several varieties of wheat, three varieties of barley, and two of oats was distributed.

Several new varieties and strains of grain have been brought into Orange county by the extension service and have been adopted by growers. Among these varieties are Hero barley, Kanota oats, and Escondido wheat. Golden barley of Oregon Club Marjout have also proven superior in years of light rainfall and on poorer soils.

Mix Isinglass,
Cream, Stir Well,
Then Drink Fast

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Some of the food dished out in George Washington's boyhood home convinced experts today early Americans were made of stern stuff.

"The Art of Cookery," a book once owned by Washington's father, was displayed by the National Park service.

It contains this recipe for a dietary disaster called French Flummery:

"You must take a Qt. of cream and 1/2 oz. of isinglass, beat it fine and stir into the cream. Let it boil slowly over a slow fire for 1/4 of an hr.—sweeten it to your palate & put in a spoonful of rose-water and a spoonful of orange water."

Then, the book advised:
"You may eat it with cream or wine. Lay around it baked pears. It both looks very pretty and eats fine."

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—The state supreme court has denied without prejudice the petition of Ben F. Downing of Long Beach for a writ of mandate to compel state officials to issue him a prospecting permit to drill for oil on 123 acres of filled-in Long Beach shore land.

Payne unleashed a terrific right which sent Morrow reeling in the third round, but the bell saved him from a 10-count. Payne easily showed the most aggressiveness. ONE DOUBTFUL DECISION
There was only one doubtful decision in the lot. Gus Leyvas of Yuma, Ariz., brother of Bobby Pancho Leyvas who head-lined Hollywood Legion cards, was given the nod over 110-pound Lupe Rangel of Ontario, after landing several good blows in the third and fourth rounds. Fans thought the bout should have been a draw. Frank Rangel, Pomona, landed three solid blows to defeat Indian George Couse of Los Angeles in a lack-luster bout that went the entire distance at 135 pounds. Neither fighter showed any aggressiveness, or willingness to mix it.
The card was the second sponsored by the 40 & 8 society of the American Legion.

Murderer's Row Collects 87 Home Runs; Cubs Regain National Lead From Giants

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Yanks are coming so fast they're even ahead of themselves. The New York slaughter squad is not only on the way to another walk to a pennant, but appears headed for a bigger year than the record breaker of 1936.
Taking this season's figures to date, Gehrig and company are set to make more of a chopping block than ever of American league competition.
CUBS RETAIN LEAD
The fact stood out today as the Yanks coasted along on a 7½ game lead, while over in the National league the Chicago Cubs were once again at the head of the parade, by virtue of a 5-1 thumping of the Boston Bees during yesterday's program—or that part which wasn't washed out.
The Yanks have yet to enjoy their full strength this season, with injuries, ailments and spring holdouts. Nevertheless they have already smashed out a total of 87

YESTERDAY'S STARS

LEFTY GOMEZ, Yankees—Allowed five hits and fanned eight in six-inning pitching to whip Tigers.
TEX CARLETON, Cubs—Beat Bees, 5-1, with eight hits.
EARL BRUCKER and GEORGE CASTER, Athletics—Former drove in all A's runs; Caster pitched four-hit ball in 2-1 win over White Sox.

home runs, thereby leading their record breaking production for the same period last season, when they hit a total of 182 in 154 games. Every man in the lineup climbed aboard Detroit pitching yesterday as the swat squad clubbed out a 13-6 victory over the Tigers, thereby stretching its undefeated streak to 10 games—nine wins and one tie—their longest in four years.

TOUGH ON FAVORITES
Except for the Yankees and the Cleveland Indians, who trounced Washington's Senators 6-2 as Hal Trosky poled his nineteenth homer, American league favorites found the going rough.
The skyrocketing Boston Red Sox had an edge for five innings, but the St. Louis Browns put on a three-run surge in the sixth to come through with a 5-3 decision.
A couple of youngsters, George Caster and Earl Brucker, combined to give the Athletics a 2-1 win over the White Sox, thus ending a string of 16 games in which the Philadelphians had failed to break into the victory column. Caster handcuffed the slugging Sox with four hits, while Brucker belted in both of the A's runs.

NEW YORK. (AP)—A certain big league club has its eye on Rabbit Maranville for manager. . . . Three guesses. . . . The Yankee winning streak of nine straight is the richest since 1933 when the club won nine in a row. . . . Hope the report that Mickey Cochrane isn't getting well quite as fast as the doctors hoped is all wet. . . . BUDGE AND GRANT ASSIGNED SINGLES AGAINST GERMANS

Bitsy Meets Von Cramm Tomorrow, Red-Head Plays Heinrich Henkel; Doubles Monday

LONDON. (AP)—Capt. Walter L. Pate today designated Bryan M. (Bitsy) Grant of Atlanta and Don Budge of Oakland to play singles for the United States against Germany in the Davis cup inter-zone tennis finals at Wimbledon. Budge will team with Gene Mako of Los Angeles for the doubles play. The Atlantan, who has not been playing up to his usual game because of a severe cold since he arrived in England, will open the semi-finals when he meets Baron Gottfried Von Cramm tomorrow.

Budge will play Heinrich Henkel as soon as the first match is out of the way and on Monday Budge and Mako will meet Von Cramm and Henkel in the doubles.

On Tuesday, Grant and Henkel will lead off in the first of the two final singles matches. Budge and Von Cramm will ring down the curtain on the inter-zone finals.

The winners in the series will go into the challenge round, meeting Great Britain for possession of the Davis cup at Wimbledon July 24, 26 and 27.

It had been thought Pate, the non-playing skipper of the American team might name Frankie Parker of Milwaukee, for the second singles assignment.

Grant played in the North American zone finals against Australia but was taken ill with a severe cold on his arrival in England and did not play as well as Parker at Wimbledon. Parker eliminated in the semi-finals by Budge who trounced Von Cramm in the finals.

Budge, teamed with Mako, to win the doubles and captured the mixed doubles with Alice Marble. He is rated by English experts as the best American since Bill Tilden.

Germany won the European zone finals four matches to one from Czechoslovakia to get into the inter-zones.

Gene Venzke, the runner, shoots golf in the low 70's and plans to enter the big tournaments from now on. . . . Mike Jacobs says that blast from the District of Columbia Boxing commission is just an effort to club him into signing for a James J. Braddock-Jorge Brescia match in the capital. . . . Smart baseball writers say Tony Lazzeri of the Yanks, Luke Sewell of the White Sox and Buddy Myer of the Senators are the three best managerial bets in the ranks of American league players.

PEACE IN S. F. HOTEL STRIKE SLATED SOON

Working Week Only
Point Now at Stake

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Peace was in sight in the 76-day San Francisco hotel strike, as union and employers committees today called what was expected to be the last negotiation meeting before union memberships were asked to vote on tentatively approved settlement plans.

Negotiations said the length of the working week—unions have demanded a five-day, 40 hour week—was the only major point still at issue. Yesterday conference reached an agreement on preferential employment for clerks and the union shop for other employees. Union negotiators, who predicted an agreement, emphasized any compact must be ratified by the membership of the six striking unions, representing more than 1500 strikers, before the tie-up of 19 hotels could be terminated.

Xmas Trees May Become a Farm Crop

PORT ANGELES, Wash. (AP)—Growing Christmas trees may become just as much a farm crop venture as growing wheat or potatoes, if experiments being directed by the U. S. forest service are successful.

Civilian Conservation Corps-men supervised by Ranger M. J. Mapes, are planting 62,000 Douglas fir seedlings on Olympic Peninsula logged-off land, spacing them but four or five feet apart instead of the usual eight-foot spacing used in general reforestation.

When the baby trees reach a suitable height they will be marketed as Christmas trees, and a close check on all costs of the project will be available to show whether "Christmas tree farming" could be made a profitable agricultural enterprise.

Light Bulb Nest Makes Night Owls Of Sparrows

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—Bird lovers here are worried about the condition of two sparrows who made their nest inside a street light globe downtown.

It was all right when the weather was cool. The sparrows enjoyed the heat of the bulb and didn't seem to mind the light. But with the advent of warm spring nights, the birds find their abode altogether too stuffy and keep getting up nights to step outside for a breath of air. Some of their human friends report they are getting very wan and have dark circles under their eyes from lack of sleep.

Bird lovers are trying to figure out some way to explain to the sparrows that if they stayed out of the nest altogether their eggs might incubate automatically.

Dog Tries to Keep Money In the Family

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Oscar Cummins had a bulldog that believes one's money should stay in the family. Cummins had his dog along when he handed City Clerk James F. Clough a $1 bill to pay an annual dog license fee. As Clough held the bill the dog jumped up, retrieved it and carried it back to his master.

This happened a second time, and not until Clough put the bill away in the city bill did the dog give up his efforts to regain possession.

Delivers Letter He Paid to Mail

BRISTOW, Okla. (AP)—It cost Ray Miller 39 cents to send a letter to a girl living in the same town and then he had to deliver it himself.

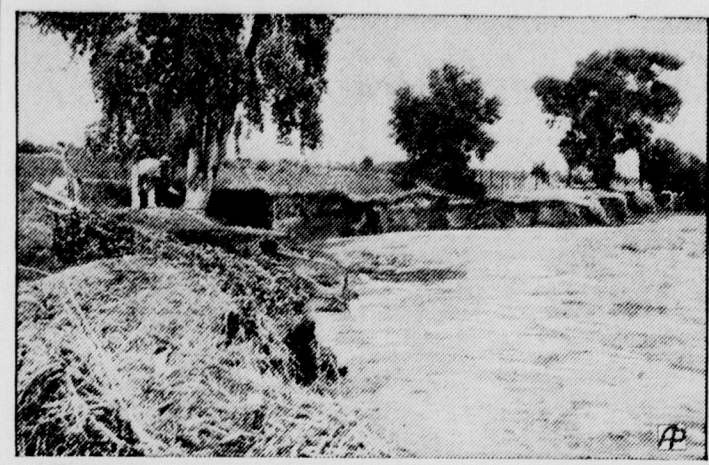

Miller, a rural mail carrier, said he wrote asking the girl for a date. He paid one cent for a stamp, 15 cents for registry, 10 cents for special delivery, 10 cents for an addressee-only designation and three cents for a return receipt. When time came for delivery, the city mail carrier was ill. Miller was called on to substitute and delivered the letter.

'Auto-Intoxication' Swells Accident Rate

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Not all "drunk drivers" are intoxicated by alcohol. Dr. George W. Cox, Texas state health officer, says carbon monoxide in automobile exhausts causes intoxication which results in the driver becoming confused and losing control. "Many automobile accidents each year are due to a mild form of poisoning by this gas," he says.

PENS PLAY AT SITTING Lord Dunsany's new one-act play presented at the Gate theater, Dublin, Irish Free State, was written at a single sitting. He is the author of many one-act plays and states that most of them have been written with no time off, except for a meal or two. The new play, "Lord Adrian," is a comedy.

River Experts Fight Flow Of Frankenstein

Here's how the man-made San Simon river cuts away Arizona banks when the flood stage sends it on a soil-eating orgy.

UPHOLD VICE CONVICTION

NEW YORK. (AP)—The conviction of Charles (Lucky) Luciano, Manhattan vice lord and his co-defendants on charge of compulsory prostitution and conspiracy, was unanimously upheld today by the appellate division.

Luciano was sentenced to serve 30 to 50 years. Twelve others were convicted with him or pleaded guilty and received lesser sentences.

Attorneys for Luciano, in seeking a new trial, presented affidavits stating the testimony of five women, called by the state, was false and obtained under duress.

TRAIN KILLS TWO TOURISTS

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—A grade crossing collision crushed out the lives of two members of a Kimberley, B. C. family and sent two others to the hospital seriously injured.

Arthur A. Skead, 35, and his son, Arthur C., 9, were killed when a freight engine struck their automobile at Arcadia last night. Margaret, 14, both suffered brain concussion and internal injuries, but are expected to recover, hospital attendants said today.

Oregon Man Heads Hardware Dealers

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—New president of the National Retail Hardware association was Charles G. Gilbert of Oregon, Ill.

Other officers elected with Gilbert at the close of the organization's annual convention were Veach C. Reed of Cynthiana, Ky., vice president; H. P. Sheets of Indianapolis, Ind., managing director, and Ted Suenen of Hudson, Wis., a director.

Lack of Shade Closes Playground

Due to inadequate shade at Lathrop school, the playground there will close today, Truscott T. Lindsey, general supervisor Orange County WPA recreation, announced today. The tennis courts will remain open, however, Lindsey said.

Opening of Spurgeon school playgrounds between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. will take the place of Julia Lathrop.

Ill Wind Keeps Grandpop Ignorant Of Blessed Event

SANTA MONICA. (AP)—A contrary wind balked a county forestry ranger in announcing a blessed event.

The event was the arrival of an 8½-pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller of Santa Monica. In their isolated mountain cabin near the Ventura county line, Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Etz, waited impatiently to learn they had a grandchild.

By The AP Feature Service
SAFFORD, ARIZ. (AP)—A destructive 60-mile river has come into being near here as the result of farmers' attempts to "improve" a vast once-fertile valley.

Now the government is trying to check the Frankenstein by planting grass and creosote bushes along its banks. It is estimated $840,000 must be spent to salvage what is left of the 750,000 acres of farm and grazing land in San Simon valley, through which the new stream makes its way.

First described by the late Will C. Barnes, Arizona pioneer and writer, the rich valley quickly attracted farmers and Texas cattlemen. Annoyed by spring freshets, the settlers dug a small drainage ditch and ploughed furrows to direct the water into it.

From this beginning the San Simon river sprang, attaining a depth of 30 feet and spreading to a width of several hundred. When rain falls, many tons of soil are washed away and networks of muddy gorges replace the "beautiful grassy meadows" that awestruck Barnes' admiration back in 1882.

Soil conservation engineers will try to "anchor" adjacent soil by planting the native shrubs.

Ohio Flood Is Rough On Rats

CINCINNATI. (AP)—J. S. Shuey, chief of the Cincinnati bureau of general goods and sanitation, estimates 20 per cent of the 400,000 rats that populated Cincinnati drowned during the record January flood.

"Ordinarily, in floods, the rats haven't seen a rat on two city dumps since the high water. They used to see several hundred a day. They have found hundreds of dead rats where they were trapped by rising water."

"Waste collectors tell me they haven't seen a rat on two city dumps since the high water. They used to see several hundred a day. They have found hundreds of dead rats where they were trapped by rising water."

And Did Firemen Get the Bird?

WEATHERFORD, Okla. (AP)—Weatherford's volunteer firemen had an exciting week even though they didn't fight any flames.

First, a false alarm sent them hunting over town for a blaze. Then they made a run to the other side of town, only to incur the wrath of a citizen who saw a crowd of fire-followers storm after the firemen over his fresh flower beds and shrubbery just because an over-nervous neighbor had misjudged his control over a trash fire.

The third time the alarm sounded there really was a fire—a bird's nest, built too close to an electric wire.

By prearrangement, the Triunfo forestry station was to transmit the announcement by blowing an automobile horn.

But the wind was in the wrong direction. The Etzes didn't hear the horn.

Then the ranger at the station tried pounding dishes and beating on a water tank. Still no use.

At last, off duty, the ranger carried the news on foot.

DAM WORKERS TO GET PREVAILING WAGE

ASSURANCE IS GIVEN BY ARMY CHIEF

Contracts to Specify Water Project Scale

Residents of Orange county who are given jobs on the $15,248,000 water project will be paid real wages.

This assurance to the workers of the county was given today by Captain Cruse, U. S. Army engineer stationed in Los Angeles. Captain Cruse said that prevailing wages will be paid on construction work connected with building the eight big dams which will give Orange county permanent flood protection and conservation of an average of 41,000 acre feet of water annually.

IN CONTRACT
Standard wages invariably are paid in contracts with the government, the army officer said, and they are specified in the contracts. He pointed out that the wage scale will be based on wages prevailing in the district.

It was pointed out that the work will not be what the army engineers term a "relief job." In other words, real wages will be paid, and not comparatively low WPA scales.

With this assurance, laboring groups of Orange county are expected to unite to support the water program, which will mean jobs for more than 1000 men over a period of three years. All labor will benefit from the program, and business will be stimulated by the expenditure of millions of dollars in a small territory.

GOOD FAITH

Orange county is required only to show its good faith by purchasing and clearing reservoir sites, guaranteeing damage claims, providing a means of access to channels for directing the controlled flow of the retaining basins.

Members of the county-wide Flood Control Campaign committee, headed by A. J. McFadden, Santa Ana, are urging voters to pile up an overwhelming majority in favor of the $2,500,000 water bond issue at the election July 27, to convince governmental authorities that Orange county wants that $12,748,000 for the reservoirs, and wants it right now.

Newhope Drainage District Revived

Armed with $101,000 in RFC bonds, the Newhope drainage district came to life again today.

Col. M. B. Wellington, attorney for the district, announced today that the district, once bankrupt, had bought up its old bonds at 80 cents on the dollar and refinanced with the RFC money, payable at three and a half per cent over a period of 40 years.

The district went bankrupt several years ago, but the law under which the bankruptcy proceedings were filed was found unconstitutional. The district embraces some 3500 acres near Garden Grove.

Hot Weather Fails to Slow Up Book Reading Champs

Three of Santa Ana library's championship bookworm quartet are leaving their absent teammate far behind in the shelf dust. And while they're doing it they are running up a total of books read that few if any of the other 12,000 library customers can hope to equal.

The hot-weather slump doesn't bother them as it does most persons. They just keep on drawing out books by the armload and flipping through their pages at almost unheard of rates, considering the fact that reading is a secondary occupation with all of them.

CANT HELP IT

That absent teammate can't help himself, however. He's a starving bookworm barely keeping alive on the meager offerings of magazines way up in the mountains somewhere.

Of course he isn't aware of what's going on while he's away. Neither he nor any of the other four is aware of the other's reading feats. It's a wholly mythical championship team. Bookworms don't have time to be concerned about races or competition or anything a fellow reader is doing.

The starving member of the quartet is Arnold Lund, coach at Willard Junior High school, who is vacationing far from any bookshelves.

'EATS 'EM UP'
But when he's here, says Miss Ethel Walker, the librarian, "he's my idea of a real reader. Why, he carries out books 10 and 12 at a time. And they're on all kinds of subjects."

The one who probably has the right to be called captain of the mythical bookworm team is E. L. Spencer of 2355 Riverside drive, manager of radio station KVOE. He reads three or four fat books

FRAUD RACKET BARED FOR LIONS CLUB

Irish Lace Deal Here Part of Big Swindle

Santa Ana housewives who "bit" on buying what they thought was Irish lace this week probably were patronizing one of the members of the widespread Williamson family—127 men, women and children who make millions of dollars a year. Police have been seeking a woman who operated here.

This thought was suggested to Lions club members yesterday by Robert J. Bauer, manager of the Better Business bureau of Los Angeles, in discussing frauds which take from the American public an estimated $3,500,000,000 a year.

CHAIN LETTERS

Fire loss annually, Bauer pointed out in comparison, is $500,000,000 a year.

The average family gets swindled in one form or another twice a year, Bauer said, and frauds affect 99 per cent of all families.

The old "dime chain letter" idea comes around about every eight years, he said, and has ever since the Civil war, appearing in various forms. Forty million persons took part in the last outbreak, Bauer said.

"SUCKER LISTS"

The Williamson family, he pointed out, all contribute each month to a "defense fund" to keep the members out of jail. The "Irish" lace, incidentally, is made on machines in Pennsylvania.

Swindlers exchange sucker lists, he said. Ignorance, the fact that a deal looks good, organization, leniency of the law and the courts, and the fact that everyone is prone to take advantage of a "something for nothing" idea contribute to the amazing success of the fraud racket, he said.

Twenty-five hundred persons in the United States last year paid $2 each for cans of oysters "guaranteed" to contain at least $5 worth of pearls apiece, Bauer reported.

PUFF SHEETS

Other swindles, he explained, were "mug sheets" and "puff sheets," which purport to have large circulation as magazines and write laudatory articles—for a price—about individuals, the "police magazine racket" and so-called merchandising counselors.

A. I. Mellenthin was program chairman, introducing the speaker. Vice President Carl Stein presided in the absence of President Frank Harwood in the east.

E. M. Sundquist, past president, inducted Roland Gloess, Carl Johnson, Frank Hickey and Jack Hannah into the club as new members.

George H. Tobias is today being congratulated on his election as the first president of the newly reorganized Barrister's club.

The organization is slated to meet on the first Monday of every month. Tobias pointed out to the organization that it has the opportunity to bring before its members speakers of prominence and ability along current legal lines. Tobias said it would be the aim of the club to get these men to speak for them.

Bowl Program Draws Local People

Opera and Soloists Augment Program This Summer

Gala opening of the Hollywood Bowl season this week brought with it announcement of the eight-week series of programs that are, as always, of exceptional interest to Santa Anans and Orange countians whose cultural and artistic natures have found such inspiration from the same summer musical presentations in years gone by.

Many local people were in the crowd of 20,000 persons who literally jammed the vast open-air amphitheater last night for the first opera of the season, "Carmen," with Pietro Cimino conducting. Brilliant and colorful in performance the three featured artists, Bruna Castagna, Sidney Rayner and Perry Askam were also in fine voice. Costuming and action were lifelike and modern in interpretation, and the Theodore Kosloff ballet of the fourth act was delightful.

Tonight will feature Vladimir Golschmann as conductor, with Rossini and Josef Lhevinne as duopians.

Three programs will continue to be given each week during the summer. As scheduled they are:

THE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

By DONALD BUTTON

Triumphs predicted for Milora Zornes' eastern showing at the Gallery of Modern Masters in Washington, D. C. have been realized.

Press comment from the Capitol Newspapers is so enthusiastic in accord with public opinion that Zornes moves on to a schedule of eastern shows. He is on his way!

Writing in the Washington Herald, Nathan Weinberg says "Some water colors in their effort to be beautiful becomes smoothly insipid. Some, to attain 'life,' jar the eye. Zornes gives us the beautiful in the living."

"The Washington Post commented: 'When Zornes paints a tree bending under the wind, it gets all the effect of motion but does not content his drawing to an eccentric degree... it is a relief to find a modern artist who does not go in for extreme contortion.'

Helen Buchalter's transcript of the showing, in the Daily News reveals a deeper study of the pictures, is the most significant report upon the exhibition.

Says she "Just when the hot weather threatens to checkmate all art activity in the Capital, the exhibition of Modern Masters opens a large exhibition of Zornes' water colors and it turns out to be the best one man show of the season!"

"Not all his work is equally successful. Some of the paintings seem deliberate experimentations. Certain smaller paintings have a compact, charming, intimate quality, but his best work is usually large-scale, poetized transcription of impersonal nature."

Thus, eastern comment on one from our midst!

Some of these pictures may possibly return to California in time for Zornes' public library showing here late in September. His painting has an increased value, surely, from the reception just accorded it!

Jean Goodwin proffers prints and pastels at the library here beginning Tuesday.

They have been chosen from her own collections for their freshness,

Completion of Paul Mooney and Richard Halliburton's house on the rim of Aliso canyon is distinct credit to Alexander Levy, the architect and builder.

Garrett Van Pelt has termed it "one of the most completely functional houses in southern California."

Plans now go forward for Levy's own house on the same hillside, but presenting entirely different problems of site and requirements. I like Levy's saying—

"The house must be built about my possessions and needs... I believe I shall have broad flower troughs that extend from outside inside, thin walls that go through the building and over the hillside, floors that step down the land, broad, flat and opulent."

Again, he is one architect worth watching go places!

TWO HOSTESSES ENTERTAIN TOROSA GROUP

Miss Lutie Lyman and Mrs. M. C. Cooper joined yesterday afternoon as co-hostesses to the Torosa Past Noble Grand association for a pot-luck lunch in Mrs. Cooper's home, 529 Garfield street.

The luncheon was served at tables set in the garden of the home, with bowls of pink and yellow gladioli centering the tables.

During the business session, Mrs. Laura Tramel presided, and arranged for an initiation meeting to be held early in September.

Mrs. B. M. Jaunsbach of Sioux City, Ia., a guest at the lunch gave a short talk. The next meeting will be held in the Laguna Beach summer home of Mrs. Laura James. Mrs. Mary Kuhl will be co-hostess.

Present were the Mesdames Lucille Rathbone, Ada M. Spencer, Ethel H. Brown, Laura Tramel, Martha Van de Walker, Mary Hertert, Mary Kuhl, Laura James, Leona Talbot, Mary Cooper, Martha McKee, Maude Lentz, Othello Grey, and Miss Lullie Lyman.

Mary Stoddard Women Seldom Find Good Meal Ticket and Perfect Lover in Same Man

The letters still pour in to answer "Private Secretary" who told us of her love for two men—her husband and her boss. She can't decide between the two men, and says that she doesn't want to. We've had our say in the matter, so we'll leave the column open to others who want to advise her: My Dear Miss Stoddard: I figured out an answer to divorces and some of the various causes for domestic disturbances. It was inspired by the letter from the girl who was having trouble with her conscience. She was married and having an affair with the boss.

Women expect two qualities in men, the ability to be a breadwinner and the ability to be a thrilling lover. To her both are equally important. She is superficially content if one of the qualities is well developed in the man of her choice, but she never stops wishing and looking for the missing qualification. If her husband is a good provider and a sorry lover, she usually takes refuge in dreams and vicarious love affairs. And if he is a Romeo she is usually willing to do the breadwinning's work. Women are good sports about that.

Not one woman in a thousand will find the perfect lover and meal ticket in the same man. And when she realizes that she got stung by the dextrous dagger of destiny, she grins and bears it. But occasionally a girl comes along who finds one man with one gift and another with the other gift and she gets them both. But as a normal woman is honest with herself she realizes that she is doing someone a dirty trick and she develops these complexes and conflicts that are gravy to psychoanalysts.

The obvious answer to this is for the woman in the difficulty to select the man she wants and make him develop the lack of ability. But, darn it, the girl is hampered again by the curse of Eve. She likes to have the ability come spontaneously and it cheapens anything when she has to demand it. A girl hates the idea of forcing a man to support her or make love to her against his will. She knows he should want to do these things naturally. When she gets to the point that she is getting, she takes some course of action that causes her to regret the remainder of her life. Sincerely,

IGOR.

Dear Miss Stoddard: The letters to "Private Secretary" were not so lengthy but they spoke volumes. If it is not too late I would like to add my bit.

Dear "Private Secretary": Though your letter was more on the order of an advertisement of your personal charms and accomplishments than anything else, I suggest you read an article under the caption of "Warning to Office Wives" in the Reader's Digest, page 51, of the July number.

Needless to say, you wrote your own report card. You ranked high in your elective subjects—an "A."

Try to wake up and live honestly and decently. Oh yes, I forgot you said any such advice would fall on "deaf ears" and you might have added, "a dead conscience." But what if your conscience should arouse itself, and you found it had developed a cancer? Your hearing might return also. Here's hoping in your elective subjects—an "A."

Hollywood SIGHTS and SOUNDS

HOLLYWOOD.—If the history of Hollywood can be told in its restaurants, Eddie Brandstatter can be the historian.

Eddie's a filmand figure, the intimate of stars and a fellow with cause to know what a star's friendship means. Many stars have caused to be grateful to Eddie, too. He fe dither handsome faces in places where they couldn't pay him to put it on the cuff.

With David Covey he is reopening the burned-out Sardis soon. It's to be one of those ultra spots, even more ultra than before the fire. Eddie glows with anticipation, just as he glowed long years ago over his Sunset Inn. Sardis is his third venture in "dramatizing" food for the benefit of movie stars and tourists.

Eddie's Sunset Inn lives in local legend as A Place. It was out in Santa Monica, and it was the scene of parties. In Hollywood's happy-go-lucky youth—days when big money and lots of free time had the boys and girls giddy—the Sunset Inn flourished. Abe Lyman got his start as an orchestra leader there.

EVERY WEDNESDAY
"Not wild days," Eddie'll correct you. "Just fun. Sunset Inn was the play place. That time Bebe Daniels got a jail sentence for speeding in Santa Ana, for instance. All Hollywood went with to serve her a special dinner—with photographers, of course—in her cell. And we rigged up a cell at the inn for her release, and had a grand party in celebration."

But Sunset Inn belonged to a less inhibited, more child-like and naive era of film life. Pictures grew bigger and bigger, and Eddie led them to Hollywood proper. He built his Montmartre.

They still reminisce in cafe-going circles about those "Wednesday evenings" at the Mo'art. Special section roped off for stars, who came dressed to kill and fill the eyes of the tourists who could not occupy the unhalloved but well-kept reserved sections. Eddie, discreet host, could watch the budding, blooming and fading of myriad movie romances.

HE CARRIED 'EM
But in its day of glory Eddie had built the groundwork for his current venture. Everybody who was anybody had to be seen there. If they couldn't afford the tariff they'd urged them to come anyway. "You've got to be seen," he'd say. "Never mind the checks. I'll carry you."

He carried thousands of dollars in this fashion. Some of it was paid in cash eventually, much he received not directly. But he figured he was to be seen. When he started out again, in the dark days of the depression, he found out where he stood.

"It was something the way they rallied 'round," he says. "When I let it be known I was making a fresh start they came to me with checks—not for hundreds but for thousands of dollars."

COMEDY, DRAMA AT BROADWAY

One of the most attractive double feature programs of recent months opened last night at the Broadway theater. The bill, with "Ever Since Eve" and "Armored Car," will end tomorrow night.

Robert Montgomery and Marion Davies are co-starring in "Ever Since Eve," the liveliest and most amusing comedy in which either of the two popular stars has appeared. The cast includes such favorites as Patsy Kelly, Frank McHugh, Louise Fazenda and Allen Jenkins. What happens when a beautiful secretary makes herself ugly to escape the attentions of men, and then falls in love with her employer forms the basis for the novel plot.

"Armored Car" is a thrilling drama concerning incidents in the lives of men who guard armored trucks and convey huge sums of money and securities. The picture features Robert Wilcox in the role of a guard and Irving Pichel as a stermind of the underworld, with Judith Barrett supplying the romantic interest.

Selected short subjects include the latest issue of the popular March of Time, giving the news behind the news in dramatic fashion; a cartoon, "Pink Elephants," and World News events.

SHOWER PARTY HONORS RECENT BRIDE

Added to the list of post-nuptial parties honoring Mrs. Beverly Trickey (Ruth Cawthon) was the shower given last night by three young Tustin women in the M. E. Lawrence home, 520 West Third street, Tustin.

Miss Audrey Pieper, Miss Nell Lawrence and Miss Irene Lawrence were the hostesses last night. Most of the guests were childhood friends, and the evening was spent in talking with piano entertainment by Miss Pieper, Miss Genevieve Eustis and Miss Marian Carson.

The Lawrence home was decorated with bouquets of huge hydrangea blossoms, and one bowl of way zinnias and dahlias was a bit more charming, or womanly, one a little more alluring, but neither charm nor beauty can be bought in boxes or bottles.

But there's no use blinding ourselves to the facts. Perfume may make a charming woman a bit more charming, or womanly, one a little more alluring, but neither charm nor beauty can be bought in boxes or bottles.

Although women still cling to all the beauty aids, and the modern girl feels that cosmetics are indispensable, more and more women are beginning to realize that beauty begins with good health, and good health is governed by fresh air, exercise and diet.

What a woman eats has more to do with her looks than the shade of powder or rouge she so carefully chooses. A diet which includes plenty of fresh fruits, fresh vegetables and milk will do far more to make a woman vital and magnetic than all the perfumes of Arabia.

And a little exercise, regularly followed, will do more to keep a woman young than all the face creams in Christendom.

Of Interest To Women

Sometimes we wonder if holding a husband is half as hard a job as the tons of advice offered on the subject indicates.

Mrs. Paul Whiteman, wife of the famous band leader, has joined the ranks of those who advise others how to make husbands happy.

In an article in Good Housekeeping, Mrs. Whiteman offers the following tips:

Give your husband the kind of a home he likes. Take him in on everything you buy, and select things together.

If you aren't going to be home when he arrives after a day's work, leave a little note telling him where you are and when you expect to return.

Learn to play the games your husband likes, but don't always expect him to play with you. Never try to run his office.

Engage in a quarrel now and then so that your life won't be too monotonous, but keep your head. Make an event out of dinner, even if you have only corned beef and cabbage.

Don't watch your husband constantly but make him feel you are aware of what is going on.

We wish the band leaders and the politicians and poets of the country would get out their pens and write a few articles on how to hold a wife. Not that the advice is needed particularly, but it would sort of even things up.

A woman we know who has been married 25 years to the same husband said the other day: "What I would like to see is an article on how a woman can get rid of her husband. My observation has been that the average wife has more trouble losing a husband than she does holding him."

"Trust a drop of V. . . perfume to endow you with brilliant magnetism," says a blurb advertising a $20 an ounce scent.

If a single drop of any essence under the sun will endow any woman with "brilliant magnetism" it's cheap at half the price.

But there's no use blinding ourselves to the facts. Perfume may make a charming woman a bit more charming, or womanly, one a little more alluring, but neither charm nor beauty can be bought in boxes or bottles.

Although women still cling to all the beauty aids, and the modern girl feels that cosmetics are indispensable, more and more women are beginning to realize that beauty begins with good health, and good health is governed by fresh air, exercise and diet.

KIPLING SAGA NOW PLAYING

Crowds of theatergoers are being thrilled at the West Coast theater by one of the great sea stories of modern literature, Rudyard Kipling's famous saga of Gloucester fishermen, "Captains Courageous."

Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy and Melvyn Douglas have the leading roles in the picturization of the immortal Kipling story which traces the adventures of a rich, spoiled boy who becomes a man and learns the true meaning of friendship and unselfishness.

Freddie Bartholomew is the rich little boy who is swept overboard, to be picked up by Manuel, the humble Portuguese fisherman,

LEGS SHAPELY, SAYS GERARD

NEW YORK. (AP)—James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, who slid his shapely legs into shiny black knee breeches for Britain's coronation, came back to the United States with a word of praise not only for his own but for the legs of other American men at the ceremony.

"The Americans who wore knee breeches at the coronation festivities showed a fine set of legs," said Gerard. "There wasn't a knocked knee or a banded leg in the whole outfit."

In amiable mood, despite the gray drizzle that fell across the harbor as the Italian liner Rex moved towards its pier, Gerard had praise also for England's King George VI, for the recuperative atmosphere of southern France—too many coronation dinners and luncheons drove him there to rest—and for the Countess Haugwitz-Reventlow, the former Barbara Hutton.

The countess should be given a medal, he said. Why? Well, because she is "so proud of being an American that she did not give up her citizenship, although she could have done so and saved large sums of money in income taxes."

Another 30 feet has been obtained by the deal for the widening of the 14-foot alley along the beach near the bluffs to permit a circulating street for the beach area for future development.

In return, the bank secured title to approximately 900 feet of beach frontage the abandonment of certain alleys and streets to permit subdivision of their property along the bluff.

LOYAL TROOPS SPEED DRIVE TO LIFT SEIGE

MADRID. (AP)—Insurgent warplanes today bombed Madrid's suburban airdromes, while the government army pushed westward in the eleventh day of its offensive to thrust back the insurgent army in Central Spain and lift siege of the capital.

The insurgent raiders were beaten off after inflicting slight damage to the air bases.

The government's westward thrust brought some of the fiercest combat of the one-year-old war.

Gen. Jose Miaja's "milicianos" drove against Villafranco Del Castillo, a village near the Coruna road and about 12 miles northwest of Madrid, where insurgent General Franco was said to have massed fresh troops, heavy artillery and many planes.

Villafranco lies between the government forces and the insurgent stronghold, Majadahonda.

Insurgent counter-attacks at Villanueva Del Castillo, tip of Gen. Jose Miaja's principal spearhead, broke down in the face of the government's reserve artillery power.

Madrid was cheered by a report from the Aragon front that a government column had driven to positions 10 miles from Zaragoza and were within sight of that provincial capital and insurgent base.

The government troops were said to have captured a small range of hills dominating Villa Franca De Ebro, near Zaragoza.

FRANCO'S MEN BEAT BACK LOYAL CHARGE

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier. (AP)—Insurgent headquarters reported today that Generalissimo Francisco Franco's troops beat back a government attack near Cuesta De La Reina, inflicting heavy losses on the attackers.

A government report mentioned an attack yesterday in that sector, about 25 miles south of Madrid, but said several hours of rifle, machine gun and artillery fire brought no change in positions.

U. S. LOSES SOCCER, BUT SHOULD ANNEX PAN-AMERICAN TRACK

By Felix R. McKnight

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Kicked around by the Argentina soccer team in the opening event, the United States looked for a quick comeback tonight in the track and field preliminaries of the Pan-American games.

Sprint and hurdle stars of six nations are entered in trial heats of the 60-meter dash, 65-meter hurdles and 200-meter sprint, only track events on a second night program which will close with a soccer game between the United States and Canada.

Four Yankee dash stars who packed away points from the recent National A. A. U. meet—Perrin Walker, Ben Johnson, Ray

Dean and Jack Weierhauser—will oppose the top-ranking stars of Central and South America.

Wiry Bento Assis of Brazil was entered in both the 60-meter and 200-meter events.

Three Americans are heavily backed in the 65-meter hurdles, Allan Tolmich, the Wayne university star who won the A. A. U. event; Roy Staley of Southern California Sportsmen club, and Jack Patterson, the Rice Institute flyer who took the A. A. U. 400-meter hurdle event.

Ten thousand fans were present when the Argentina soccer eleven toyed with the Highlanders of Trenton, N. J., national champions, in a 9-1 victory.

GREYHOUND, HAMBLETONIAN KING TROTS AGAINST ITALIAN ACE

By Orlo Robertson

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—They're racing over historic half-mile track here on the fringe of the Ramapo mountains but a lanky grey horse, standing in his stall back of the 100-year-old oval, is the star attraction.

The horse is Greyhound, fastest of American trotters and selected to carry the banner of the United States against Muscletone, pride of Italy, in the first international match race in the history of trotting.

It rained yesterday but that did not stop several hundred fans from parading through Greyhound's barn to get a glimpse of the horse that won the 1935 Hambletonian and last year hung up a record of 1:57 1/4, only a half-second short of Peter Manning's international mark.

The Grey Streak, owned by E. J. Baker of St. Charles, Ill., originally was scheduled for an assault on Uhlan's half-mile track record of 2:03 3/4, but the water soaked track forced a postponement until today.

Just where the match race will be held will not be decided until Gino Malani of Milan, owner of Muscletone, arrives in this country with the Italian colt about Aug. 1. "It's up to Malani to decide when and where the race will be held," said Sep Pallin, trainer of Greyhound. "We're willing to meet him over either a half-mile or mile track. Naturally I would prefer a mile oval, but Muscletone has done most of his racing over a half-mile course since leaving this country in 1934."

A return race will be staged in Italy, probably in January.

MADRID: Business As Usual

DRUG STORE

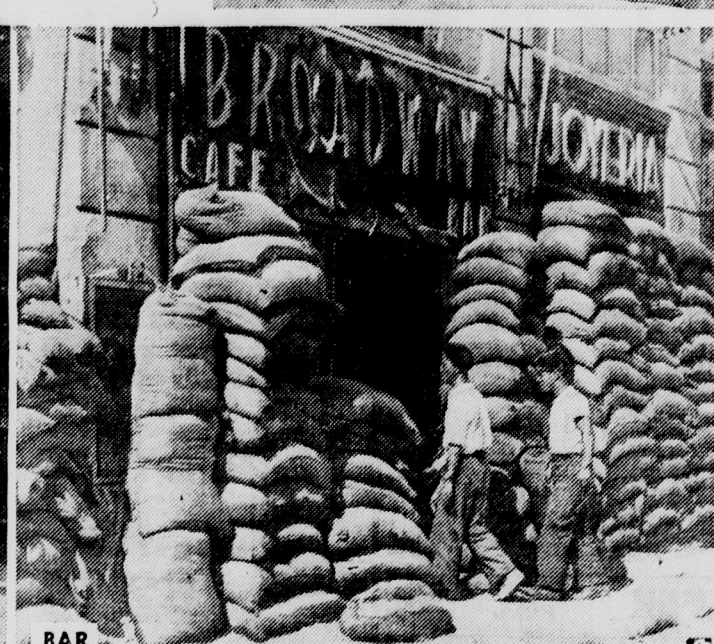

By The AP Feature Service
THE shops may be battered, or hidden behind protective walls of sand bags, but—as the drug store sign proclaims—it's "business as usual" in Madrid as Spain approaches the first anniversary, July 18, of its civil war. Madrid prides itself on that. A third of the city reportedly has been shot away. Rebels camp ominously at the city gates. Following the capture of Bilbao, a grave new push was threatened. Yet Madrid carries on. Shoppers crowd the streets as if nothing were happening. After each bombardment, workmen quickly cart away the debris. Life and death walk hand in hand—but business goes on as usual.

Uses Suspenders To Save Pal's Life

ROCHESTER, Wash. (AP)—John Norgaard, 52, logger, traded his suspenders for a certificate of merit.

While working in the woods, Norgaard saw a fellow logger slip and sever an arm artery on an axe blade. Lacking other material for a tourniquet, Norgaard pulled off his suspenders and wrapped them around the arm.

The injured man, hurried to a hospital, recovered, and the state bureau of industrial insurance

Trailer Baby Comes Under Difficulties

NASHUA, Ia. (AP)—Six-foot Dr. P. E. Stuart bumped his head in the process, but he delivered the first "trailer baby" born in Iowa.

Dr. Stuart, crouched in the narrow, low-ceilinged trailer home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton White, found that the gas stove wouldn't work and had to procure an oil stove to heat water. Every time he raised his head, it bumped against the ceiling. But Dr. Stuart conquered these obstacles and brought Darla Frances White into the world in the 7-by-16-foot traveling home.

"I asked them afterwards why they didn't drive the trailer up to my office and use it as a maternity hospital," Dr. Stuart said, "it would have been a lot easier."

THE WIDE OPEN SPACES
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Brewster county in Texas is larger than the states of Rhode Island, Delaware or Connecticut. The former King Ranch alone is larger than Delaware.

But Dr. Stuart conquered these obstacles and brought Darla Frances White into the world in the 7-by-16-foot traveling home.

"I asked them afterwards why they didn't drive the trailer up to my office and use it as a maternity hospital," Dr. Stuart said, "it would have been a lot easier."

MURDERER OF EDITOR SANE, FACES DEATH

ALTURAS, Calif. (AP)—Harry French, found sane by a jury that previously had convicted him of first-degree murder, today faced a mandatory death sentence for the "newspaper feud" killing of Claude L. McCracken, 36, Modoc county editor.

Ten men and two women jurors returned the sanity verdict last night, five hours and 15 minutes after beginning deliberations. Superior Judge Ferdinand Jamison set next Tuesday as the time for sentencing.

Chief Defense Counsel S. Luke Howe said he would move for a new trial.

French, 36-year-old member of a pioneer Alturas family, was convicted of fatally shooting McCracken as the latter sat at dinner in his own home last March 25.

The defense contended French, physically frail since childhood, had been driven to insanity by McCracken's "persecution," which took the form of articles in his newspaper and odd behavior on the street when he met members of the French family.

Bureau to End Plane Gas Menace

WASHINGTON. (AP)—New insurance of safety in the air will be provided in the near future, the bureau of air commerce says, in regulations to prevent carbon monoxide gas poisoning in airplanes.

This gas, which is odorless, colorless and tasteless, has caused thousands of deaths in automobiles and homes but it will not be allowed to become a factor of danger in flying, bureau officials say. It causes serious sickness and death when breathed because the blood absorbs it in preference to oxygen.

The army air corps has found that five-thousandths of one percent in the air breathed in the cockpit or cabin of an airplane is dangerous and the danger increases with altitude because in rarified atmosphere the percentage of oxygen in relation to carbon monoxide is materially less.

It's a Long Time Between Visits

DAYTON, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Oscar White, 68, came into town the other day for the first time in 18 years.

"I am amazed at the changes," she said.

She lives one mile from Dayton.

PROBE BLAST THAT KILLED 20 MINERS

Fire, Gas Prevents Recovery of Bodies

SULLIVAN, Ind. (AP)—State and federal investigators sought an explanation today of a sudden underground gas explosion which cost the lives of 20 coal miners.

Families of the dead miners were still too grieved to talk about funeral plans. Friends said, however, tentative arrangements would call for separate services and burials.

Nine other miners were injured, four seriously enough to remain in Mary Sherman hospital here. Two of them may die.

One hundred seventy-four miners escaped the force of the explosion yesterday. They organized rescue efforts and brought the injured to the surface. But fire and poisonous gases prevented them from reaching the dead.

Many of the survivors were summoned to a formal inquest ordered for this afternoon by Coroner Cecil B. Taylor for 10 o'clock this morning.

BLONDE TELLS OF ASSAULT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Accused of attacking a 17-year-old Chicago girl whom he took parting in Hollywood, Dance Instructor Roy Randolph was held in $2500 bond today for trial Aug. 2.

Sobbing and near hysteria, blonde Charlotte Sweet testified against the 29-year-old defendant at his preliminary hearing yesterday.

She said they returned to his apartment after making the rounds of night clubs and Randolph sent her to bed in an extra room. He later entered, Miss Sweet said, and made improper advances.

The dancing teacher's counsel asked whether the girl called her mother when a man friend of Randolph left the apartment and whether she herself left immediately after the asserted attack. Miss Sweet answered in the negative.

Modern Elizabethan

An English dramatist was asked to check and correct some dialogue in a Hollywood film dealing with Queen Elizabeth and Mary Queen of Scots. He pointed out that to make Queen Elizabeth say, "Well, Mary, I guess I've got one on you," was hardly the language of the period.

The producer altered it and proudly displayed the amended version, with the comment: "It's a hundred per cent Elizabethan now."

It read: "Well, Mary, I guess I've got one up on you, forsooth."

New York Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—U. S. Steel rallied the stock market in the first hour today but, after getting up 2 points, slipped just before the close. It emerged 1/2 of a point lower at 115 1/2.

Other leaders followed steel both up and down and many issues failed to go anywhere in particular.

"Big steel" led an upswing in the first lap, but reacted when Chrysler dropped more than 2. It advanced and retreated at frequent intervals. Sloss-Sheffield Steel jumped more than 5 at one time, then yielded most of its gain.

Prices were uneven at the finish, with moderate losers plentiful. Dealings were quiet throughout.

TONIGHT'S VARIETIES
Two regular features will reach local listeners over KNX which promise to be the "tops" in entertainment. At 5 o'clock "Hollywood Hotel" goes on the air and "New Horizons" will be heard at 7 for a half hour.

The "Hollywood Hotel" program will have a little local interest in that it is to be "Phi Sigma Fraternity Night". Sixteen Santa Ana Alpha Alpha chapter fraternity men will attend the show.

Robert Taylor, handsome young leading man, and Eleanor Powell, nimble heel-and-toe artist, will appear on the program. They will preview scenes from the music screen production, "Broadway Melody of 1938". This marks a reunion for Taylor and Miss Powell. Both made a bid for cinema fame in an earlier Broadway Melody production. Other features of "Hollywood Hotel" include musical numbers by Jerry Cooper, singing start, Francis Langford, Anne Jamison, Igor Gorin, and Raymond Paige's orchestra.

'NEW HORIZONS'
Among musical highlights of the "New Horizons" broadcast at 8 o'clock tonight, the story of J. Edgar Hoover and his colorful career will be related. An interesting musical interlude under the baton of Maestro Felix Milla will be given. Will also include a novelty arrangement of the "Turkey in the Straw" plus a symphonic presentation of a melody to include the famous songs of Rudolph Friml.

KVOE OFFERS NOVELTY
The "man-on-the-street" craze has reached KVOE. Saturday afternoon shoppers—only the women for the time being—be on the lookout for "Smilin' Bill" Hynds. He will conduct an "interview-the-ladies" broadcast at Fourth and Broadway.

Later in the evening, Capt. Don Wilkie will tell another of his intriguing stories. At 8 o'clock

ALLEN MAKES FRIENDS FOR ALPHA BETA

Runs Vegetable Stand At 304 East Fourth

This week A. W. Gerrard, chief of the Alpha Beta stores in Orange county, introduces to Journal readers, Morris "Stubby" Allen.

"Allen," said Gerrard, "is one of our best vegetable managers, and everyone who trades with 'Stubby' at our store at 304 East Fourth street will agree with me."

"Allen has been with our organization for the past nine years, seven of which have been spent here in Santa Ana. Has lived in Orange county for the past 28 years, is married and has three children."

WEST RETURNS FROM EAST

Things should start popping around the courthouse again. Supervisor N. E. West of Laguna Beach is back.

The dynamic county official returned from a 30-day trip that took him to Washington, D. C., and other eastern points. He arrived at his home late last night.

While in Washington, West conferred with Public Works administration officials concerning the status of several Orange county projects which are pending. The supervisor said he found the projects still have no allocations made from federal funds. We said he secured the promise of officials to do their best to rush along allocations for the projects.

West brought back with him to Laguna Beach his nephew, Joe Barnett, formerly of this city, who is attending college at Harvard. Barnett will work in Laguna Beach this summer, returning to school in September.

West's trip took him through Boston, Cambridge, New York and other points.

Adults Develop Manual Skill

Men and women of Santa Ana are trying their luck in manual skill. The adult classes in wood carving, glass etching, leather craft, pottery and the various phases of handicraft have had an attendance beyond the expectations of Truscott T. Lindsey, general supervisor of WPA recreation.

It is Lindsey's contention that groupings are as much interested in handicraft as the younger generation. With this in view Lindsey and his recreation leaders organized the adult classes in Santa Ana which made their debut last Monday at the Willard school.

Each day of the week is assigned to one phase of the various manual arts, allowing a diversified field for those inclined in this direction to choose the subject appealing to them.

The work is being done in the bungalow of the Willard school and the space and facilities are capable of accommodating large classes.

If Rosa Eloned—That's All Right

The family Perez of El Modena today are hoping their missing daughter Rosa has eloped.

If she hasn't, they told the sheriff's office, she's a case for the bureau of missing persons. For Rosa hasn't been seen since last Wednesday.

"If she's run away with our neighbor, Larcio Martinez, to get married, that's all right," the family said. But they have fears her disappearance may have been caused by some other reason.

Exonerate Driver In Wilhelm Death

A coroner's jury yesterday exonerated Paul Doese, truck driver, of any blame for the death of William Wilhelm, killed in a fall from a truck last Wednesday.

Wilhelm, riding in the rear of a truck load of orange boxes, fell to the pavement as the truck driven by Doese rounded a sharp curve.

The inquest was held at the McAulay and Suters Funeral chapel in Fullerton.

AIR LAIDS PERIL WATER

If air raids cut its water mains London will have a defense. Experiments are being carried on by the fire department in relaying water from the Thames over long distances. The water is pumped through a series of collapsible tanks. Motorized dispatch riders aid in the work.

Trailer Is Puzzle To E. E. Frisby

Ernest E. Frisby has a new trailer today, but he doesn't know what to do with it.

Frisby, who lives at 1012 Kilson drive, was given the covered wagon trailer at the American Legion auxiliary dance here last night. More than 1000 persons attended the fest at Legion hall.

The only thing bothering Frisby is that he isn't planning to take a trip in the trailer, and if he keeps it he'll have to rent a place to store it. Whether he will sell it or what, is really a question today.

START WORK ON LIGHTS FLOAT

Harold Harrison, Santa Ana real estate dealer, was named chairman today of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce Tournament of Lights committee.

Harrison will head the committee that last year won the grand sweepstakes prize from hundreds of other entries. Other members of the advisory board are Curtis Bowman, Crawford Nalle, Joseph M. Winder, Hubert Gohres, Oliver Lindemeyer and John Price, chairman of last year's tourney committee and now a chamber director.

Last year was the first time that Santa Ana entered the water show, and it walked off with first honors. The permanent award had previously been won twice by Pasadena.

Negotiations are proceeding today to determine the type of water craft that will be used for the display. Harrison and Commodore Joseph A. Beck are slated to confer this afternoon on the problem. No definite plans for a display can be made until the type of craft has been decided on.

PAY $35,000 FOR BUILDING

A three-day property settlement involving $35,000 was closed today, following sale of North Main street properties to Hale Paxton, Food Machinery corporation executive, by James B. Utt, inheritance tax appraiser.

The property, located at 715-719 North Main street, was originally owned by Dorsey Clayton. Clayton erected the buildings, which now houses the Auto Club of Southern California and the James B. Utt company. Through Herb Allemen, real estate dealer, it was sold to Utt by Clayton more than two months ago. G. A. Lehigh, representative for the Utt company, completed the new deal, with Paxton.

Sale of the property involved transfer to Utt of Redlands citrus property valued at about $10,000. It is understood that the rest of the $35,000 consideration was paid in cash by Paxton. Paxton announced today that he has no definite plans for the property, but will retain it as a business investment. Income from the property is reported to be about $350 monthly.

One-Armed Paper Hanger Busy

LOGAN, W. Va. (AP)—A one-armed paper hanger here is kept busy these days.

He is C. B. Beaman, 55, who lost his right arm in a North Carolina cyclone when he was five years old.

He qualifies as a wood grainer and painter as well as paper hanger. Beaman says he can hang an average of 30 rolls of wall paper a day, while the most expert average 40 rolls.

This Will Break California's Heart

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The experts were wrong when they said Texas would have only 80,000 old age pensioners. The rolls now list 129,000 and are still growing with the system in effect less than a year.

The low figure was based on the experiences of other states. The only explanation offered by authorities is that people live longer in Texas.

Short Engagements Reap Divorces

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The ideal engagement lasts 11 months and 11 days and the betrothal period of unsuccessful marriages lasts two months and six days.

Dr. C. W. Hall who conducts a popular "marriage" course at the University of Texas, says these are the medians of 300 happily married and 300 divorced couples he studied.

YEOW! HELP!

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THAT KID? DON'T SHE KNOW ME?

Listen Caliph, what's all this stuff about a wrestler coming here to tie into Doodle?

Oh Mr. Midas just wants to see the Russian...

A Russian? Is he big... tough?

Frankly, Ivan hasn't had a win since he threw his grandpa into a cellar.

That's why he had to leave Russia. Also...

Look, Caliph. All this sounds like another one of your fast ones.

What! I'm insulted. All this Russian has is whiskers and a new high speed record for grabbing the canvas with both shoulder blades and hollering. Oh stop!

A War Too Close for Comfort

In blunt language, the Soviet government through its official newspaper points to the epochal flights of its airmen from Moscow over the North Pole to the Pacific coast of the United States and warns:

"Capitals of the enemies of Russia lie within easy reach of our bombing planes."

The reference is addressed, we believe, to Tokyo and Berlin. But it is especially significant at this time in regard to Tokyo, since some observers think that Russia will attack Japan, if the island empire becomes sufficiently embroiled in its present struggle with China.

If war does break out between Russia and Japan, the field of action will be almost in America's back yard.

Much of the war probably would be fought within a 1350-mile radius of our own Aleutian islands—a distance no greater than that of Santa Ana to Seattle.

Probably a large part of this war, if it comes, would be fought in Manchuria and Siberia.

Japan could not successfully send an expeditionary force as far as Russia. Russia's vast distances are to her advantage, as they were in Napoleon's time. The Russians allowed Napoleon to march his army to its doom, with starvation and cold as the victors.

Russia has another geographical advantage. She can put air bases in Siberia within easy bombing distance of all Japanese cities.

It would be hard, if not impossible, for Japanese bombers to make round-trip expeditions to Moscow and Petrograd.

It has been suggested that Japanese bombers might make one-way "suicide flights" to the Russian cities. However, military experts doubt if this would be practical, as the certain loss of the expensive airplanes would largely offset the possible damage their bombs might do.

Japan has the advantage on the sea. The Japanese navy has been the pride of Nippon for years. The Russian Bear had its claws nipped in the first Russian-Japanese war when the Japanese efficiently destroyed the entire Russian fleet in the Straits of Tsushima. It is doubtful if Russia again would try to send a fleet into Japanese waters.

Japan also has the military advantage of a centralized authority in its army, which is a great asset to any army. "Theirs not to reason why, theirs but to do or die" is a potent factor in planning successful military operations.

Under the Russian plan of absolute equality within the army, it will be harder to get quick coordinated action by large bodies of troops.

Each side has its advantages and disadvantages. If the war does start, and does not spread to other countries, Russia and Japan are due for a long, hard conflict, in which many will die before any decision can be reached.

Wisdom in the Labor Question

We're indebted to the Omaha World-Herald for having dug out of a recent biography of the late Lord Grey, British statesman, a letter written by Grey in 1912, when the big English coal strike was about to begin:

"This coal strike is the beginning of a revolution. We shall, I suppose, make it an orderly and gradual revolution. But labor intends to have a larger share, and has laid hold of power. Power has passed from the king to the nobles, from the nobles to the middle classes and through them, to the house of commons, and now it is passing from the house of commons to the trades unions.

"It will have to be recognized that the millions of men employed in great industries have a stake in those industries and must share in the control of them. The days when the owners said: 'This country is mine; I alone must control it and be master in my own house,' are passing away. The owners still say that, but it has ceased to be real because they cannot act upon it.

"The unions may, of course, like blind Samson with his arms around the pillars, pull down the house on themselves and every one else if they push things too far; or if the owners are too unyielding there will be civil war.

"But I do think the good temper and spirit of compromise that is inherent in English character will save us from catastrophe. Mistakes will be made and suffering will result, but we shall all learn by experience.

"There are unpleasant years before us; we shall work through to something better, though we who have been used to more than 500 pounds a year may not think it better."

That letter of Lord Grey's, written a quarter-century ago, is recommended to the careful, even the prayerful, attention of the Tom Girdlers, the Frank Purnells, the William Greens and the John L. Lewises of America today.

As we understand the President, federal workers will be allowed to pay union dues.

City Employees Deserve the Raise

That 10 per cent pay boost for municipal workers will come in handy for 185 families whose breadwinners are on the city payroll.

The raise restores a cut made during the depression. In view of the enormous rise in prices since the time the slash was made those additional dollars probably will be eaten up rapidly without any of the city workers having to buy limousines or yachts in order to use up the money.

Most of the $39,000 increase in proposed expenses for the city next year is due to the pay boost.

But, so far as we can observe, Santa Ana civic employees are a highly efficient group and they deserve the reward which the council is granting.

TEMPER PLAYED PART IN ROBINSON'S DEATH

WASHINGTON.—Stubborn, bitter temper—the same high blood pressure which is making men in congress purple with rage over the supreme court issue—undoubtedly choked off the days of Sen. Joseph T. Robinson.

He was highly wrought up when he opened the difficult supreme court debate a few days ago. His heavy cords strung for the occasion until he was taut as a bull fiddle at a barn dance. The strain was too much. While on his feet in senate debate, Uncle Joe was so tense that he instinctively put a lit match to his cigar. In this state, he was confronted a few hours before he died with the ultimatum from the house judiciary chairman that the court bill would never be reported out by his committee.

Sixty-five years old, after a hard-battling life, living only for the day when the court-enlargement bill would go through and he would receive his reward in the nature of an appointment to the supreme court, Uncle Joe must have been overcome with a sense of frustration. He had not been well, and the tension of these last few days had done its fatal damage.

A FIGHTER

There was nothing subtle about Uncle Joe. His achievements were those of headstrong force, armored with forthrightness and courage, tempered by a frank willingness to compromise at the right times. He was as transparent as cellophane, and as tough. Uncle Joe never outsmarted anybody. He just beat them or got licked or settled for what he could get.

An ideal crony, a favorite fishing and hunting companion of men like Bernard M. Baruch, a buddy of Harvey Couch, the utilities king of Arkansas and the Southwest, Uncle Joe never got cold feet on his job, which was to take orders from Roosevelt and carry them out—and not on a stretcher, either. He liked to play with economic royalists, but he worked for Roosevelt and nobody else. It was his loyalty, more than anything else, that made Uncle Joe so highly regarded not only among Democrats but Republicans, one of his closest friends being Senator McNary, the Republican senate leader.

EASY TO BOIL

Uncle Joe could purr and beam. Yet his temper was on hair trigger. He could fly into uncontrollable rage on slight provocation. In his younger days he was one of the most two-fisted of pure men, although in later years he used less forceful methods of persuasion. Huey Long's favorite trick in the senate was to catch Robinson in an affable mood in debate and begin to rasp him. Knowing that Uncle Joe had a low boiling point, Huey took a kid's delight in building a fire under him. Sometimes Uncle Joe would explode and sometimes he would just swell up and sputter.

ANGERED BY CLAPPER

I had known Senator Robinson many years, and in 1930, when he was a member of the American delegation to the London naval conference, I saw him frequently. As I left London he asked me if I wouldn't like some cigars. I said I seldom smoked them. Nevertheless, he took a large handful out of his desk and crammed them into my various pockets.

Not long afterward, when we were both back in Washington, I had an assignment concerning nepotism in congress which involved asking him several direct questions. We chatted amiably until I got down to the business in hand. When I put the first question, as tactfully as I could, his face went red. Giving me a curt answer, he rose and left the room. Thereafter for several years when we met around Washington he never spoke, although during that period I was surprised one day, on reading the Congressional Record, to find that he had inserted as part of his remarks, with a complimentary introduction, something which I had written about Roosevelt. Recently, when we have met, he has spoken pleasantly, but never again after he took offense at my reporter's question did he resume calling me by my first name.

FIGHT NOT WORTH LOSS

Robinson had fire, but he never quite brought it under control. To the very end he was shaken by the same kind of intense emotion which is wracking the senate and the house at this moment, setting friends against friends, turning reasonable men into shouting tub-thumpers, letting loose a brainstorm over Washington, settling nothing.

Nothing that needs to be done in Washington today is worth this, any more than it was worth the life of Joe Robinson.

Fireproof wood is the newest thing in the building trade. It is being used in the construction of small homes, factories and in many mine shafts. Boards of one inch in thickness are given a coating of firmly bonded cement, and in this form they resist fire. They are used on walls and ceilings to insure against damage by fire.

NEW YORK.—Herman Rosenthal, a gambler, whose charges of graft against leading officials of the New York police department led to a thorough investigation into the workings of the department, was shot and killed early this morning in West Forty-third street.

Property owners on East Fourth street, between the Santa Fe depot and Maybury street, presented a petition to the city council last night to pave the street to meet the proposed state highway on the east, with as good pavement as the state highway commission uses, and on motion of Trustee Alderman, seconded by Trustee Grubb, the city engineer was instructed to prepare plans and specifications and the city attorney to draft a resolution of intention to the board to begin proceedings under the Vrooman act to order the proposed street improvement done.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON.—The President is planning a visit the Philippine islands this fall, if and when congress finally passes his most essential legislation.

The trip is still subject to change of plans, but it would be in line with his policy of visiting all American territories and possessions, and also in line with his hankering for a sea trip after congressional sessions are over.

Roosevelt already has visited Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Philippines, and the Canal Zone, to say nothing of various Latin-American countries. He has toyed with the idea of making a trip to the Azores, but according to present indications will make it to the Philippines instead.

He would go on one of the new fast cruisers, the Houston or the Indianapolis, and would stop en route at Guam or possibly the Wake islands. He would stop very briefly at Honolulu for fuel.

According to present plans there would be no stops in Japan. The President would go direct to the Philippines, and then return.

JUMPY

Fear must dominate the treasury department and the life of Secretary Morgenthau more than anyone suspects.

The other day, while he was being photographed with the Chinese finance minister, there was a sharp explosion in the rear of the room. Morgenthau, usually self-spoken and serene, leaped to his feet with clenched fists and turned as if to defend himself against an assailant. His face betrayed an intense conflict of fear and anger, the instincts of primitive man.

The explosion was caused by a photographer's defective flashlight bulb. The rapid oriental beside Morgenthau did not stir, nor did Mrs. Henrietta Klotz, his secretary, who had been showered with glass.

OUT OF ORDER

As the senate controversy over the supreme court reached its height, with Democratic leaders forcing rigid parliamentary rules on their own party colleagues, this sign was posted on the swinging doors leading into the Democratic side of the chamber:

"THIS SIDE OUT OF ORDER." It was posted by the secretary of the Democratic majority. Les-bie L. Biffle. But he only meant that the hinges had gone wrong on the swinging doors used by the Democrats.

JUDICIAL RIVALRY

Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina, the Republican federal judge whom Herbert Hoover appointed to the supreme court but who was not confirmed by the senate, has taken another healthy crack at his would-have-been colleagues.

He has been playing directly into the hands of Roosevelt, slapping at Hughes, who was appointed at about the time Parker was, and at Roberts, who was appointed in his place.

The latest crack shows up Parker's supreme court colleagues on the tender subject of vacations. It will be recalled that Roosevelt berated the supreme court for adjourning June 2 with several important cases before it notably the Alabama Power company case.

One Man's Opinion

I ACCUSE
In spite of the weather we've been having lately, I have a gripe. I'm almost afraid to go to a movie show any more for fear I'll bump into a newsreel done by one of the movie companies that "has it in" for Mr. Roosevelt.

If it's just a normal movie company that's doing the newsreel, Mr. Roosevelt will be shown as the affable, sincere gentleman he undoubtedly is, with a courageous battle grin and eyes that bespeak the very height of intelligence.

But if the newsreel is done by one of the outfits that has a lot of devious financial strings on it that lead back into the mess of political animosities of 1936, our President is quite likely to look like Mephistopheles or something that was dragged out of Dr. Caligari's cabinet.

And if you think I've exaggerated the case at all, just keep tab on the next six or eight Roosevelt newsreels you happen to see. Keep tab in your pocket notebook. The new technique in the movies can, if the operators of camera and sound machine operators are so instructed, make the victim look and sound like almost anything they want him to.

In Hollywood it is considered no trick at all to take some slab-sided lunk of a girl and make her appear like the queen of fairyland.

Conversely, the same technicians could, if they so desired, give Robert Taylor the physiognomy of a sea elephant and the voice of Donald Duck.

I object herewith, noisily and emphatically, to having the angles and lighting and whatever tricks there be, distort the fair features of the First Gentleman of the nation into a black-eyed geometrical monstrosity that was never seen on land or sea.

Mr. Roosevelt has plenty of major battles on his hands, and couldn't lower his dignity to complain of camera tricks. But some of the rest of us, if we howl loudly enough about it, may get for him a little fairer play in this regard. I've started it. Now you take it.

The Mailbag

Public opinion, or what somebody in office imagines to be public opinion, is one of the most important factors in the making of public policy. The Journal invites letters to The Mailbag.

FIGHTING FOR PRIVILEGE

To the Editor: Volumes of adverse criticism have been written by plutocrats claiming President Roosevelt is trying to destroy our so-called American liberty. Also they place great stress on the idea that we are in great danger from the communists and radicals, etc.

I'm wondering if they aren't thinking of the liability of losing their special privilege and license to do as they please, regardless of what the majority want. The only real danger we have in this country at this time is fascism, originating in Wall street and supported by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. B. F. FULTON.

COST UNCHANGED

To the Editor: Everyone, apparently, is greatly interested in the "attempted rescue" of our most noted woman flier, Amelia Earhart.

Some of these interested citizens are genuinely serious in their anxiety for the flier, while others are anxious only to the extent of how much the government is spending in the search and possibly they can vision an increase in taxes due to Uncle Sam's expense of $250,000 per day in the search for Earhart and Noonan.

To the first group of citizens who express their honest and praiseworthy anxiety for the lost couple, I will say that they should lessen their fears for good old Uncle Sam himself is handling this affair and is saving the cost of this kind he usually does not fall down on the job.

And to those of the more selfish type, I will say that it is not costing Uncle Sam one cent more to operate these ships and planes in the South Sea than it would be in Los Angeles harbor or vicinity. These same planes and ships would be in commission and fully manned regardless of where or what their occupation is, and the only "grouch" that can possibly be nursed is that this comparatively expensive search is made in the interest of some one other than their own selfish selves. T. O. B.

Remarkable Remarks

Doubtless we make many mistakes in erecting too many monuments to war heroes . . . but we certainly will erect no monuments to labor leaders or capitalists who are fighting for power and self.—Dr. W. T. Duncan, Cleveland.

The Republican party can help America most by cutting into more than half that octopus business which is crawling across our country's body like a creeping paralysis.—Gilbert Bettman, former Ohio attorney general.

Labor is the most difficult hurdle you've got, greater than money or any other problem, you'd better recognize labor.—Sir Josiah Stamp, England.

WHIMSIES

NEW YORK.—Thoughts while strolling: When the almost giantish Albert Papsan Terpin goes swinging by everybody in a gawk. Breeziest sounding writing name: Zona Gale. For a court house steps quartet 20 years ago: Bud Kelland, Charlie Falls, Harold Ross and Grant Rice.

Not many more snappily dressed among the middle aged than Joseph Widener. How many remember frog-in-your throat tablets? No one would ever recognize the old saloon back room all plushed up as a lounge. The tall, thin feminine stylist, Eva Steinmetz. And her roly poly husband, Otis Ralston.

New York's symbolism in its drug store window decorations: Ear stoppers, black sleep masks and headache powders. Swell autobiographical job: That of Walter Chrysler. And one every boy who doubts American Opportunity should carefully read. The Lambs membership mostly radio stars these days.

Louise Rainer is a ringer for Evelyn Thaw 20 years ago. Broadway's most self-effacing biggie: Sid Silverman, son of Sime. And owner of Variety.

Who remembers when a man could be rich and also respected? Add smooth dance bands: Horace Heidt's. A brave fellow once thought hopelessly crippled in a football smash-up. Why is there usually so much charm among those we know to be utterly worthless?

There are times a columnist feels he might be helping a bit especially when receiving a letter such as this: "Broke and discouraged in Los Angeles in 1934, I heard of a dinner to be given to the broker Ed Hutton at the California club and which would be attended by Vin Cobb, Cecil B. DeMille, and O. McIntyre. I managed to talk them into letting me exhibit my trained dog, 'Red Rust'—with several other acts scheduled. In your column you mentioned the dinner and praised the dog. That inspired me. I took the $20 and with a sack of dog biscuits headed East. The first New York engagement was at the Casino de Paris with Jimmy Durante. From there to Earl Carroll's Sketch Book in Miami, then to the Ambassadors in Paris and home to the Iridium show at the St. Regis, and last month a private showing at President Roosevelt's. As you know, 'Red Rust' is the dog I trained to make himself go so limp he can be thrown around a lady's neck in the manner of a fur coat. A girl said that in one show, at a beautiful lass who modeled for Rolf Armstrong, and I married her during the run of the Carroll show. So thank you very much for taking us from a 50-cents a - night neighborhood theater act to as high as $1200 a week on the big time.—Robert Williams and 'Red Rust'.

Reverie: How enchanting with the roll of years is that venerable expression: "When evening shadows fall." Twilight was made for quietude. It was grandma's favorite interlude. It was when the kids were quietly rocking as day and night so pleasantly blended. In the sitting room with the old base burner giving off its mellow glow. Always with reluctance she cast off her musings, lighted the evening lamp and returned to reality.

Over on Third avenue the other night quite late a roysterer emerged from a beer place, all sheets to the wind and a friend of the world. Crossing the street, he came upon a group of swells who had just passed a limousine. They were faultlessly dressed and the convivial stranger weaved up to them and pleaded: "Let's shing' someshin." "One of the ladies, smiling her prettiest, replied: 'Surely, what will it be?' As he in the middle of the block they joined in a rendition of 'Till the Old Mill Stream." Such a thing at ten in the morning was unthinkable. Chaplin once built a picture around that idea—the hum and the plutocrat enjoying each other's company when drunk but as far away as the poles when sober. I once fell in with a managing editor on the loose and joined him in a mild toot. We teetered about arm in arm in what seemed to be a perfectly camaraderie. The next late morning I peeped into his office and beamed: "Well, how do you feel today?" His look had the chill of ice water. As much as to say: "Last night is over." He never recognized me, save with a curt bow, afterward.

Back country expressions are often amusing to born New Yorkers, who never hear, for instance, the word query. Too, there is the out yonder query: "Who beat?" Instead of "Who won the ball game?" And, "John's a great beauty for his cakes. Them! I aim to do that." And I am one of those who "haul off" and hit. But I still like grandma's expression best of all. When anything surprised her she would in the retelling exclaim: "I nearly went up."
